

ADAM

Written by Alvin Ray Kessinger

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying, Recording or by any information storage and retrieval system, without written permission from the author, except for the inclusion of brief quotations
In a review.

© Copyright 2003 by A. R. Kessinger

Adam was born at the first stroke of midnight, on the first day of January in the year 2000.

He was proclaimed to be the first baby born in the world for the new millennium.

He was given the name Adam Noah Christian.

His Father's name was Joseph Andrew Christian,
who was of Jewish English descent.

His Mother was Mary Rebecca Christian, of African American and Spanish descent.

After Adam was cleaned up he was taken in to Mary so she could feed him.

Mary took him in her arms and looked him over then placed him to her breast.

She laid her head back on the pillow.
She was thinking of how wonderful life was going to be with their new baby.
Thoughts raced through her mind about all the things she would do for him.

Then suddenly a strange feeling came over her.

Adam had stopped nursing; she raised her head and looked down at him.

She was amazed to see his eyes were already opened, and he was staring up at her.

After a few seconds he closed his eyes and continued to nurse on her breast.

Later that afternoon the doctors came and got Adam to examine him.

They found a small chemical protruding from the back of his brain.

They studied it carefully and decided not to do anything about it.

The happy parents took Adam home.
Things went well for the first four months.
Each time Mary would pick him up she would tell him, I love you Adam.
Then one day, Mary was cleaning Adam's room.
She heard a voice say, "I love you".

She turned around to see who had said it.
There was no one in the room but her and Adam.

She walked over to his crib and looked down at him.

He was kicking and moving his arms about and making baby noises. She looked at his eyes, it looked like he was looking straight at her. His eyes had a strange look about them.

She reached down and patted his head.
Then She smiled at him and said, "I love you".

She decided that she had imagined hearing the voice.
Then she turned to finish cleaning his room.

When she had finished she went back to Adam's crib.
She looked down at him, then patted his head and said,
"I sure do love you." then turned to walk out of the room.
Just as she got to the door, she heard the voice say "I love you."

She turned around and looked at Adam.
He was still kicking and moving his arms about just like before.

She walked back to the crib and looked down at him for a while.

Then she said, "Can you talk to me Adam?"

Again the voice came, "I love you," but Adam's lips did not move.

For a moment fear came over her.
she thought there may be someone in the room playing a trick on her.

She looked the room over, looking in the closet and under the crib.

There was no one to be found.

She went back to the crib, looked down and said, "Adam. "

The voice came again. "I love you".
It was very clear.
but she couldn't determine whether she was hearing it, or if it was in her mind.

She said again, "Adam this is your Mother. "

The voice said, "I love you," then paused and said, "Mother".
She fainted and fell on the floor beside the crib.

When she awoke she got to her feet and walked to her room and lay down on her bed.

She still was not sure if she had imagined it all or not.

Her first thought was that she was losing her mind.

Babies can't talk, and even if they could his lips did not move.

After about an hour she had decided that it was indeed all in her mind.

Then suddenly she heard the voice say, "Mother, I'm hungry. "

She thought, that was in my mind, what in the world is going on?

Again she heard the voice, "Mother, I'm hungry."

She got up and went into Adam's room to his crib.

She reaches down and picked him up, walked over to a chair and sat down.

She opened her dress and placed him to her breast.

As he nursed she looked at him and thought to herself, "What are you?
Are you some kind of mutant or are you gifted in some way.

She decided that it didn't matter which it was.

Then she smiled at him and said in her mind, "I love you, you are my son."

The voice came back to her, "I love you too Mother."

Adam had not stopped nursing.

CHAPTER TWO

MAKING A DECISION

After feeding, bathing, and dressing him, she put Adam back into his crib. he went right off to sleep.

When Joseph arrived home that evening Mary met him at the door.

She told him to come sit on the couch with her.

After they sat down she said, "I have something to tell you. You are going to think that I have lost my mind, but I want you to believe me. "

"I will believe you, what do you want to tell me. "

Mary looked at him, "Adam communicates with me telepathically. "

"What do you mean communicate? "

"He talks to me by telepathy. "

He looked at her and smiled.

"You don't believe me, do you? "

"Honey I think that you have become so close to Adam that you want him to talk to you. "

"I knew you wouldn't believe me.

She begins to cry, got up and went to her room and closed the door.

Joseph laughed to himself a little then got up and walked to Adam's room.

He stood by the crib for a while looking down at the little baby.

"OK Kid if you can talk, talk to your Father. "

He stood there for a while longer, and then turned to walk out of the room.

He had only taken two steps when the word "FATHER" hit his mind like a sonic blast.

He turned and walked back to the crib, reached down and picked up Adam.

He held him up; Adam's eyes were wide open and staring him right in the eyes.

He just held him there for a while looking at him.

Then he remembered Mary saying something about telepathy.

He said in his mind "Adam, Who am I? "

The same voice as before only not as powerful said, "Father".

"Well I'll be damn, you can communicate, I don't know how but you can".

Then he took Adam and went into the bedroom where Mary was. "He said Honey I heard him talk, he said Father. "

"You are not just telling me that are you. "

"No, I really did hear him talk, he said Father. "

"Do you think we should tell someone about this? "

"No I don't think so, let's just keep it to ourselves for a while.

One morning Mary went into Adam's room.

She found him lying in his crib watching T V.

She said, "Adam, How did you turn on the T V? "

Adam looked over at the T V and it went off as if by its self.

Mary was astounded, "Adam did you do that with your mind? "

"Yes. "

"What else can you do? "

At that time the crib came off of the floor about a foot then down again.

"That is amazing; you are a very special child."

As Adam got older he learned to talk, at the age of two he could read children's books.

By the time he was three he was reading at an eight-grade level.

When he was four, Mary got him a Webster's Dictionary for his Birthday.

At six he could read, spell and knew the meaning of every word in it.

By the time he was eight he had read the complete World book encyclopedia

His search for knowledge was relentless. He couldn't get enough; he read everything he could get his hands on.

He read very fast and could remember everything that he read.

He could read, write, and speak twenty six different languages, fluently.

He built his own computer system and mastered it with ease.

He started his own website just for children, and was in contact with thousands of them around the world.

CHAPTER THREE

ADAM GETS STRONGER

At age ten he was in contact with other children's minds.

He could reach them from miles around. He was in complete control of his telepathic and levitation powers.

He and his father would pass the baseball in the back yard. He would do it using only his levitation power.

Then one day, Adam and Mary had gone shopping. Adam was now twelve years old.

Mary had to stop at the bank to take care of some business.

She parked the car and they got out and went into the bank. Just before entering Adam noticed a car parked right in front of the bank, it had a man behind the wheel and the engine was running.

As they entered the bank, two men had held up the bank and were getting ready to leave.

As they passed them one of them grabbed Mary and took her out the door and was getting ready to put her in the car.

Adam ran outside of the bank and with his levitation, snatched the guns from the robber's hands and sent them soaring through the air and landing on top of the bank. Then he lifted Mary and brought her to him. The two men jumped into the car, the driver started to take off, but the car would not move.

Its wheels were spinning but it would not move.

Then they tried to get out of the car, but the doors would not open.

At that time the police arrived and Adam released the car and fell to the ground, the strain had been too much for him. He had never extended himself that far before.

Witnesses told the police what had happened.

They said that boy has some kind of power, he stopped that car from moving and his Mother flew from the robber's car to him.

They called for an ambulance and took Adam to the hospital.

While the doctors were looking at Adam, Mary called Joseph and told him what had happened.

Joseph told Mary not to let them do anything until he got there.

When Joseph got to the hospital, Mary met him at the door.

“They won’t let me see my son. “

“Have they told you anything yet. “

“No. “

As they got back to the waiting room, a doctor came in and said, “Mr. and Mrs. Christian. “

Joseph said “Yes, we are Mr. and Mrs. Christian, How is our son? “

“Your son is in a coma, he has a brain hemorrhage. Is there anything you can tell me that will help us to treat him. “What can I tell you, He is a healthy twelve year old boy. “

“Have you noticed anything strange about him? “

“Like what? “

“Like things moving in his room on their own. “

“No we have seen nothing like that. “

“Now we want to see our son. “

“Yes you can go in now, but just for a little while I want him to get plenty of rest before we run more test. “

“What kind of test are you going to run on him. “

“The first thing I want is a brain scan. “

When they entered the room they saw Adam lying still as if he were asleep.

There were tubes and wires hooked to him to monitor his vital signs.

Mary begins to cry.

Joseph took her in his arms to comfort her. “It’s all right honey, everything will be all right”.

CHAPTER FOUR

A TIME OF SORROW

After a short time they were taken to a room in the hospital where some men were waiting on them.

Joseph said, "What is going on? Why have we been brought here and what do you want from us?" One of the men said, "Please sit down I want to ask you a few questions. "

"Who are you? "

"I am Officer Carry of the F.B.I. "

"What do you want to know. "

"I think you know what we want to know. We have everything that happened in front of that bank on film. There was a surveillance camera that got the whole thing.

Now I want you to tell me everything about your son, like how did he get his power and how strong are they.

"I think this is where I say, I will answer no questions without my attorney present. "

One of the men turned and left the room.

"Now Mr. Christian, there is no reason to get upset, there is something strange going on here and it is my job to find out what it is. "

The phone rang; Carry picked it up and listened for a moment then put it back on the hook.

Then he said, "I'm very sorry, but your son is dead, He had a brain hemorige, it was painless for him. "

Joseph said, "We want to see him, "

Carry said, "I'm sorry, he has already been taken downstairs. "

They took Joseph and Mary to a room in the hospital and told them to wait there.

After about six hours Cary came in and told them to go home now and make arrangements for their son, he will be released in a few days. "

Mary was crying, Joseph took her by the arm and led her out the door and took her home.

In the meantime an ambulance pulled up to the back door of the hospital.

A gurney was rolled out with a small body on it. It was placed in the ambulance and taken away.

CHAPTER FIVE

A MYSTERY

The next morning Joseph called the Hospital to see when Adam's body would be released.

They told him they had no record of an Adam Christian being there.

He gave them the doctor's name; they said they had no doctor by that name working there.

He called the F.B.I. and asked for officer Carry.

They told him there was no officer Carry in the F.B.I.

Joseph told them what had happened with Adam.

They told them they would send someone out to talk to them.

Later that day a man came to their door.

He showed them his ID. And said, "Now what is this about your son? "

Joseph told him everything that had happened.

The man looked at him and said, "Just what are you trying to pull? "

Joseph asked, "What do you mean? "

"Before I came here I ran all of your records, there is no record of you ever having a child, boy or girl. "

"Alright this has gone far enough, I want to know what has happened to my son, and I'm damn sure going to find out."

"Look Sir, I am here to try to help you, if you can show me some proof, like a birth certificate or tell me where did he go to school. "

Mary got up to go get Adam's birth certificate.

Joseph said Adam was home schooling and taking courses on his computer.

Mary came back and said, "His birth certificate isn't there and I can't find a picture of him in the house. "

Joseph said “What about the picture of all three of us that sits on the mantel? “

They all went into the den and looked on the mantel.

There sit a picture of Joseph and Mary, Adam was not in it.

The man said, “Well I don’t know what is going on here but if you can give me something to go on let me know.”

He gave Joseph his card then turned and walked out of the house.

Joseph said to Mary, “They have him honey, and I don’t know what to do about it.

But there is one thing for sure; if he is alive we will know about it as soon as he can contact us. “

CHAPTER SIX ADAM IS ALIVE

Three days passed, Joseph and Mary had heard nothing or could not find anything to show that Adam ever existed.

That night they were asleep. They were both awakened by the mental voice of Adam in their heads. They both raised up in their bed.

“Did you hear that?” Said Mary. “Yes, He is alive”.

Then Joseph heard Adam say, “Father, I want to come home. “

“Adam, do you know where you are? “

“Somewhere in California, I don’t know where. “

“Check their minds and try to find out where you are, don’t let them know you are doing it, and keep in touch with us, we are on our way to California.
“

They got up and got dressed and headed for California.

As he drove Joseph talked to Adam, “Adam, tell me about the room you are in. “

“It’s a big room with lots of computers in it. They have me on a table and there are straps holding me down. There is something on my head with wires running to a machine.

Do you want me to get up and leave this place? I could if I wanted you know. “

“Yes I know you could but don’t do anything until you find out where you are and I get there. “

“OK Father I won’t.

“Adam no matter what, don’t let them hurt you. “

“OK. “

After a while some people came into the room where Adam was.

One of them came over to him and asked him how he was doing.

Then the man went to the machine that was hooked to him.

He turned a dial on it and electric pulps went through Adam's brain.

It hurt and angered him

With his mind he took the device that was on his head off and sent the whole machine flying across the room into the wall.

The other people laughed at him and said, "I think you made him mad".

The man said, "I have never seen such mental power".

"Adam talk to me. "

"Yes Father, I am here. I now know where I am. "

"Where are you? "

"I am at a place called the Campton Lavatory, on the south side of San Jose California. "

"We will be there in the morning to get you out of there. "

"Are you ok? Have they hurt you? "

"I will be fine just come and get me. "

Joseph and Mary entered San Jose, they stopped and filled the car with gas, and then they found the Campton Lavatory and drove past it to look it over.

It was a very big place with a wall around it.

There were two steel gates with a guardhouse and had two guards in it.

They drove down the block and turned around and parked the car.

It was about two in the morning.

"Adam can you hear me? "

"Yes Father I hear you. "

"You can come out now, but be careful and don't kill anyone. We are just down the street from the gate. "

CHAPTER SEVEN

ADAM'S GREAT ESCAPE

Adam raised his head, looked at the first strap that was holding him down.

The strap broke with ease.

Then he broke the other one.

He sat up and stretched his body, then jumped down off the table. Then he realized that he was naked.

He pulled the sheet off of the table and wrapped it around himself.

Then he used his telepathic power to see where everyone was.

There were only two guards on that floor.

There was a window in the room, he looked out, and he was on the second floor. And the window had bars on it.

With his mind he raised the window.

Then with great concentration he focused on the iron bars.

They bent and opened enough for him to fit through them.

Then he levitated himself and moved through the bars and lowered himself to the ground.

Slowly he made his way around the big building.

Then suddenly someone yelled, "Hold it right there."

Adam turned and saw a man with a gun.

With his mind he pulled the gun from the man's hands and sent it through the air to the top of the building.

Then he picked up the man and lifted him to the window where he had come out of and put him through it until his body was half way inside, and then he closed the bars until they were snug and left him there.

He continued to move around the building.

He moved over to the wall, levitated himself over the wall and down on the outside.

He looked up and down the street and saw his father's car and started for it.

At that time he heard the alarms going off in the building.

Then he heard the sirens coming down the street.

He got to the car and got inside. They all ducked down in the seat just as a police car came speeding by.

After it had passed Joseph started the car and made a u turn and left the area.

Adam did not know what they had done to him, but he knew his powers were getting a whole lot stronger.

About one hundred miles away from San Jose they stopped at a motel to get some rest.

They slept most of the day, it was late afternoon when Adam woke Joseph and said, "Father, there are a lot of police outside. "

Joseph got out of bed and looked outside through the window.

There were at least twenty police cars around the motel.

CHAPTER EIGHT

ADAM DISCOVERS HIS DESTINY

Adam knew he had to do something to get away from them.

He ran out the door, stood firm and focuses his mind on the police cars and their weapons. All of a sudden the police cars started to roll over and over.

Their weapons begin to fly away from them.

Joseph's car was sitting in front of the room they were in, it had not moved.

Joseph and Mary came running out of the motel room and got into the car.

Mary had her door open and was telling Adam to get in the car.

Adam turns to run for the car but just as he did, a sniper on a roof across the street took aim and fired two shots.

They hit their mark, one hit Mary right in the chest, and she fell out of the car.

The other hit Joseph in the head; he fell down in the seat.

When Adam saw what had happened he let out a very loud scream.

Then he saw the sniper, he took him high into the air and threw him into a motel window.

The police cars begin to fly around in all directions.

He continued this for several minutes, and then when it was all over he levitated his Mother and Father's bodies and himself and began to fly.

He took them into the mountains and buried them together where no one could find them.

He waited till nightfall then he went to the nearest town and broke into a clothing store and got him some clothes then he returned to the mountains again.

He said to himself, I will take my revenge on the grownups.

They are selfish and greedy.

They are killers.

They need no reason to kill, they do it for pleasure.

I take no pleasure in it, but now I will show them what killing is all about.

The time was two pm, he begins to levitate himself high into the air, and then he flew back to San Jose. Back to the laboratory where they had held him.

He landed inside the wall at the main door. With one thought and a wave of his hand the locked doors were thrown open.

He walked inside, and then opened a couple more doors.

He could hear the thoughts of everyone in the building.

There was a call for help in his mind.

It sounded like a young girl's voice.

He found the room it was coming from.

The door flew open at his command.

Inside were four doctors around a table with a little girl laying on it.

The doctor was about to make an incision in her head.

When they saw Adam they were shocked.

They stepped back away from the table and said, "Adam, What are you doing back here?"

Adam said, "They killed my parents, I will destroy this place and take my revenge on all grown-ups.

Then Adam focus his mind on the straps that were holding the girl down, they broke with ease.

He levitated the girl and let her down beside him.

Adam took control of the doctor, raised the doctor's right hand and made him cut his own throat.

The others started to run; Adam levitated them up and slammed them against the wall.

.

He put a sheet around the girl and took her out of the building and to the top of a building across the street.

He then raised his hands and clinched his fist and focuses his mind on the laboratory building.

It began to crumble and fall apart.

When he had finished, the place was just a pile of rubble.

Then he flew her back to the mountain where he now called home.

It was beginning to get dark; Adam gathered some wood and laid it in a pile.

Then with just a thought he started it to burning.

The girl looked at him and said, "How do you do these things? "

"I don't know, I've done it all my life.

Your name is Heaven Dawson. "

"Yes, "Said the girl, "How did you know? "

"I read your mind, that's a very pretty name. "

"Thank you, what are you going to do now?"

"Where are you from? And where are your parents? "

"I live in Denver, and I think my parents are there. "

She continued, "They took me away from them after they found out that I could see things in my mind that were going to happen "

"How strong is your clairvoyance, are you one hundred percent or are you wrong sometime? "

"I have been wrong I guess."

Heaven asked, "What are you going to do now? "

“I must find a place for us to stay where we will be safe from those evil people. ““Why won’t they leave us alone? “

“I don’t know, I think they are afraid of us because we are different. “

“What do you see in your mind now?? “

She said, “It just comes to me, I have no control over it. “

“Well let’s get some sleep, we have a lot to do tomorrow. “

As they lay by the fire, Heaven said, “Adam,“

“Yes” said Adam

“Why are you hurting people? “

Adam said, “They murdered my parents for no reason, I will make them pay.“

Chapter Nine

A New Day

There was very little sleep for Adam that night. Each time he would close his eyes he would see the murder of his Mother and Father.

He fell asleep just before dawn, only to be awakened by Heaven screaming.

He opened his eyes and saw her next to him and looking to his left.

He turned to see a very large grizzly bear standing about ten feet away from them.

Adam stood up and stood looking straight at the bear.

For a moment they seemed to be communicating with each other.

Then the bear turned and walked away into the woods.

“Come on” said Adam. Heaven followed.

“Were you talking to that bear?”

“No I just sensed that she needed help.”

After about one half mile they came to a large hole in the ground about fifteen feet deep. Two bear cubs had fallen into it. They were ok but just couldn’t get out.

“Well I knew she needed help, they are her babies down there.”

Adam lifted the two bear cubs out of the hole and sat them down beside the mother bear.

The mother bear turned and looked at Adam then took off into the woods with her babies.

Adam looked at Heaven, smiled and told her to come on.

When they got back to camp Adam looked around and found them some nuts and berries to eat.

Heaven looked at Adam and said “what will we do now?”

“I don’t know, I haven’t figured that out just yet.”

“Adam I just want to go home.”

“I know you do, but if you try that your parents may die like mine did.“ Why did they do that to your parents?”

“Because they were trying to take me home and they are evil people that we are dealing with.”

“But my parents think I’m dead, I must let them know that I’m alive.”

”Heaven, they are better off not knowing that for now but I promise you that if it is in my power I will return you to them someday.” ”Adam I had a vision,”

“What was it about?”

“We were captured, tied down and they were working on us.”

“It could have been a dream, I will never let them take me alive again, or you either for that matter.

Besides you said yourself that you have been wrong some of the time.”

“Yes I hope you are right, but it seemed so real.”

“Of course I’m right, now we will stay here today and then about three in the morning we will go into a town and get you some clothes, then we will try to find a safe place to stay for a while, till things cool down.”

Chapter Ten

A Plan of Action

Adam still had not slept and it had been dark for a long time.

He figured it had to be two or three in the morning.

He laid his hand on Heaven's arm and shook her little to wake her up.

"Heaven, it's time to go."

It was a small town but it did have a couple of clothing stores.

They landed in the alley at the back door of the store.

Adam used his power to turn off the alarm and open the back door.

He told Heaven to not make any noise and follow him.

They went in and found the children's clothing and picked them out three outfits each.

Heaven put on one and Adam changed his clothes also. After that they found the shoe department and she picked out a pair of shoes.

Adam picked out a watch for each of them.

They found a tote bag and put everything in it then left the store.

Out in the ally he closed the door and locked it and turned the alarm back on.

He looked at Heaven and said with a smile," Let them figure that one out."

Before they left there they went to a grocery store and got them some food to last for a couple of days and returned to their camp site in the mountains.

They fixed themselves something to eat then settled down to rest.

"Adam what are we going to do?"

"We will rest here till tomorrow night, and then we will find us an Island that has lots of food and shelter."

"Are we going to spend our life on an Island?"

“No Heaven, I am not through with mankind yet but I must get stronger. I am getting stronger all the time, and if it keeps up, there will be nothing they can do to me.”

“Adam if you are that strong, why can’t you think of a way to let my parents know I am still alive?”

Adam sits motionless for a moment then ask Heaven, ”What was your best friends name?”

“What?”

What was your best friends name before you were taken?”

“Her name is Chrissy Sanford, she lives next door to me, and we grew up together.”

Adam stood up and said,” Let’s see what I can do.”

He closed his eyes tightly and concentrated on the Denver area.

He could hear the thoughts of many children.

He then sent out a telepathic message.

“Crispy Sanford, speak to me.”

There was nothing but the thoughts of many children

He tried again, “Chrissy Sanford, Speak to me.”

After a moment he heard a faint voice say, “Who are you? What are you? How are you talking to me in my mind?”

Adam said to her, “Do you know Heaven Dawson?”

The voice said, “Yes, she is dead, are you God?”

“No, she is not dead and I am not God. I am her friend and I want you to let her parents know that she is not dead.”

“But what if she doesn’t believe me?”

“You will tell her at exactly six o’clock tomorrow evening.

“At that time I will be locked into her brain waves and I will communicate with her myself. Now remember tomorrow evening at six o’clock.

The girl said ok and Adam broke his concentration.

He turned and walked back and sat down.

“Adam what did you do?”

“I told your friend to tell your mother at six o’clock tomorrow evening.”

“Why did you wait till tomorrow evening?”

“Because I want to be in contact with the girl when she talks to your mother. At that time I will be able to contact your mother. Heaven, I want you to think of about four or five things that only you and your mother know about.

I have to convince her that I am with you and that you are alive.”

“You are amazing, I will think of something.”

“Good, now I am going to try to get some sleep, don’t leave this campsite and wake me up if you hear anything strange.”

Heaven said OK and Adam lay down in the leaves and after a while drifted off to a well needed sleep

Chapter Eleven

A Place to Call Home

When Adam awoke it was starting to get dark and Heaven was sitting next to him.

“I was getting scared and cold.” she said.

Adam sat up and started a fire.

“Is that better?”

“Yes, very much, thank you. Adam, how long are we going to stay here?”

“We will leave some time after midnight.”

“Where will we go?”

“Somewhere where there are no people. I want to try to find an Island that has food and water and no people.”

You had better get some sleep; we may be flying for a while.”

“O K Adam, goodnight.”

She lay back on the ground and it wasn't long until she was sound asleep.

Adam sat there by the fire and went over in his mind all that had happen to him since he stopped that bank robbery.

He thought, I just don't understand why they want to do those things to people like Heaven and I. We could do so much good for mankind and all they want to do is experiment on us.

I do know one thing; they will all pay for what they did to my parents.

I can feel myself getting stronger every day.

Before long I will be so strong that no one can stop me, then I will take my revenge on them.

He looked at his watch; it was 1:15 A. M.

He stood up and walked over to Heaven and woke her up.

“It's time to go Heaven.”

“O K Adam.”

She got to her feet and started gathering up their things while Adam put the fire out.

Adam said,” This time you will be flying next to me and not on my back.”

“But I can't fly Adam.”

“I will be in charge of you but you will be flying.”

“Are you sure you can do that?”

“Don't you trust me? You don't think I would let you get hurt do you?”

“No Adam I trust you with my life.”

Adam took the tote bag from her and said, “Here we go.”

They both arose above the trees, leveled off and begin to fly side by side.

Heaven thought, this is wonderful, I am flying.

They bypassed the big cities and it wasn't long until they were out over the ocean.

They must have checked twenty or thirty islands before Adam took them down and landed beside a pool of water.

"Is this a good place?" asked Heaven.

"Yes it has food and water and there are no people. And there are no animals that will hurt you."

That evening he contacted Heaven's mother like he said he would. They found a small cave high on a Cliff that they used for sleeping.

Later that evening as they sat by a campfire Heaven said.

"Thank you Adam for contacting my mother but I sure wish I could see her."

"I know Heaven and someday I will bring them here to see you."

"You can do anything can't you Adam."

"Well, not anything but who knows I am getting stronger every day"

Chapter Twelve

Heaven's Big Surprise

Over the next two years Adam's powers had increased a hundred fold.

He was able to lift boulders weighing over twenty tons each.

He could fly faster than he ever dreamed of. And his telepathic power was fantastic.

He decided that it was time to fulfill a promise he had made to Heaven.

He had contacted her mother about ten times over the two years they were on the island.

He would not tell Heaven, he wanted it to be a surprise.

He contacted her mother and told her to come to LA and rent a boat and head out to sea. She said her and her husband would be on their way tomorrow.

As the Dawson's left the pier and headed out into the ocean, Mr. Dawson said to his wife.

"Honey I think it is about time you tell me where we are going and what is going on."

She looked him in the eyes and said.

"Yes I guess it is but get ready for a shock."

"What do you mean?"

"I have been in touch with Heaven for a long time now."

"How have you been in touch with her?"

"She has a friend named Adam that can send me messages from her by telepathy."

"I think you are imagining it."

"I did to at first but he told me things about her that only she and I know about, she had to be with him."

"Well what do we do now?"

"We keep going until he contacts me."

They had been going for about two hours when a voice came into her mind.

This is Adam, Please turn the engine off.

She told her husband. "Turn the engine off"

He turns the key and the boat came to a stop.

After sitting still for about an hour Mr. Dawson said.

"Well I've had enough of this, we're going home."

"Wait." said Mrs. Dawson. She closed her eyes and in her mind said, "Adam can you hear me?"

A voice came back to her, "I hear you, sit down and get ready for a ride."

She sat down and told her husband to do the same.

A short time later the boat started to move.

The engine was turned off but the boat was moving.

After a while they could see an island ahead of them.

The boat had not slowed down and it looked like it would run right into the island. Just before it got to the shore it went airborne right over the trees.

When it got to the center of the island it slowed then stopped and eased down to the ground among the trees.

Heaven's parents got up and was looking all around.

They could not believe what had just happened.

Adam walked out of the trees, looked up at them, smiled and said

"Mr. and Mrs. Dawson I presume."

Mr. Dawson said, "Yes but who are you?"

"My name is Adam; I'm a friend of Heaven's."

"How did you bring us here like that?"

I will explain it all later, right now your daughter would like to see you.“ Adam said, “Let me help you down.”

He levitated them both and sat them on the ground.

Then he took them back to the pool of water where Heaven lay sleeping.

Her parents went over and sat down on each side of her then woke her up.

Heaven awoke and saw her Mother looking down at her.

She let out a scream, “Mama” They all hugged and kissed for a long while.

“I’m so glad to see you Mom and Dad, I have missed you so.”

“We have missed you to honey, we almost had given you up for dead.”

“I would have been dead if Adam had not saved me from those people. “

“What people.” said her mother.

“The men who took me away.”

“They told me that Adam took you and you were in a lot of danger, they ask me to help them find you before something happened to you. “

“Mama, that man was about to cut my head open but Adam stopped them and took me away from that place.”

“Oh my God, “said her mother, “I think I have done a terrible thing.”

“What do you mean Mother, what did you do?”

“”Those men said they were only trying to help, they gave me a device to keep in my purse so they would know where I was at all times. “

Heaven said, “Did you hear that Adam?”

“I heard it, I thought this may happen.”

“I’m so sorry.” Said Heaven’s mother

“That’s ok “said Adam.

“This is a good place to fight them anyway.”

“Maybe we lost them, maybe they won’t come.”

“They are coming” said Adam “They are not far away.”

“He then levitated Heaven and her parents up to the small cave.”

Chapter Thirteen Adam's Recapture

He then flew to the highest point on the island and waited.

He knew his wait would not be long. And it wasn't.

Out on the horizon he saw seven boats headed his way.

When they had gotten within one mile of the island he caused their engines and radios to stop working.

All the boats came to a dead stop and were dead in the water. While Adam is holding the boats in place he is searching their minds.

Finally he picked out the one that sounded like he was the one in charge.

At that time Adam said "Are you looking for me, my name is Adam."

The man answered, "Yes Adam we are and we will get you, you can't escape us forever."

"Well then maybe you should come and see me."

Adam picked the man up and brought him to the island and put him on the ground.

"Why did you bring me here?"

"Because I want to watch you die."

"Adam, there are forty men out there on those boats and if you harm me they will not rest until they get you."

"You fool don't you know that I can destroy you all with just one thought."

"Have you gotten that strong?"

There was a large bolder about five hundred yards from them.

Adam said to the man. "Behold."

The bolder came off of the ground, up about one hundred feet then back to the ground where it was.

"My God that is fantastic."

“But there is one thing you forgot and that is who you are dealing with.”

Then the man raised his hand above his head.

When he did a shock wave hit Adam and it felt like his brain was going to explode.

Adam let out a scream and fell to his knees holding his head.

The man laughed and said. “Do you see what I mean Adam? Now will you stop all this and come back with me?”

Adam asked, “If I do will you let the girl go home and leave her alone?”

The man said, “I don’t care about the girl, her powers are small but you are my prize.”

As the man was talking Adam was searching his mind for the source of the shock wave.

Adam asked, “What did you use on me?”

“Do you think I’m a fool? If I tell you that you may be able to destroy it.” As he was talking Adam caught a thought.

It’s a weapon; it’s on one of the boats.

Adam was still holding his head, it still hurt real bad but he had to concentrate.

With his entire mind he tried to destroy the boats.

To his surprise most of his power was gone.

All he had left was telepathy.

Adam said, “Well I guess I have no choice.”

The man said, “OK, let’s get down to the beach.”

He then gave a signal to the boats to come on in.

Since Adam had no control over the boats they started right up. Heaven and her parents watched as Adam and the man walked to the beach and got on one of the boats and sailed away.

Chapter Fourteen

The Final Showdown

Adam told the man to send one of the boats back and get Heaven and her parents and take them to the mainland and let them go home. The man did as he asked.

Adam said, "If you harm them I will fight you with all the strength that I have."

"You have my word they will not be harmed,"

The man said, "By the way Adam, My name is Edward Hayes, you can call me Ed if you like."

Adam was taken to a place in LA where he was locked in a cell.

Ed said, "Adam, just a word to the wise there will be a man on that weapon at all times. He has orders to use it at any sign of trouble. Also there is a monitor on you, at all times someone is watching you. Now get some rest and we'll get an early start in the morning. Adam lay on his bed, he thought.

I must contact Heaven to see if they are alright.

He knew her thought waves so it was not hard to contact her.

"Adam where are you, what's happened to you?"

"I am alright, my plan is working fine." He lied.

"I just wanted to get you and your parents out of danger. Are you home yet?"

"Yes we are home and we are all fine."

"Well I'm glad of that, now don't you ever tell anyone about your powers again."

"I won't, and Adam."

"Yes Heaven."

"I love you Adam, please don't let anything happened to you. "

"I won't, now you be good and I'll contact you again, goodnight."

"Goodnight Adam."

He could tell she was crying.

Adam opened his mind; he could hear many thoughts of people that were locked up there.

Adam tried to levitate himself but could only come off the bed about a foot and that would exhaust him.

He closed his eyes and went to sleep.

The next morning they brought Adam something to eat.

He was glad to see it come; he hadn't realized how hungry he was. After he ate Ed came in and told Adam to come with him. They walked down a long hallway and entered a room where another man and a woman were waiting for them.

Ed spoke up, "Adam these are professors Ned Waters and Jane Morris. And this is Adam.

They all exchanged hellos and they told Adam to sit down in a chair.

Ed said, "Adam has great powers, I saw him lift a stone that had to weigh at least ten tons."

Ned said "That's amazing."

Jane spoke up and said, "Adam, we want to monitor your brain waves.

Adam said "do what you want but don't hurt me, if you hurt me all bets are off."

Ed said, "Adam, you just remember what happened on the island and don't give them any trouble."

Adam said, "Please don't use that thing on me anymore. "

"I won't as long as you do as you are told. "

Ed left the room telling them he would check in on them later. Jane put a device on his head with wires that run to a computer. "I'm just going to monitor your brain waves."

When she turned it on it was numbered from one to one hundred.

The needle went to forty six.

They both said they had never seen anyone that went over twenty.

They run many test on Adam all that week.

Each day they would check his brain power and each day it was just a little more.

He was getting his power back, he could feel it.

Time passed, Adam had been there for two months.

On this day they tested his brain power and it was at forty.

They sat Adam in another chair, they strapped him in.

He could not move.

They placed something on his head.

At that time Jane said.

“Professor, I don’t think this is a good idea.”

“Jane, I just want to see if we can increase his power. I will only increase it a little bit, like maybe five percent more.” He began to turn a knob on the computer. Adam could feel the stimulation of his brain as small electrons went through it.

The professor turned the knob a little more. Adam could feel his body start to vibrate some but there was very little pain.

But then all of a sudden the professor turned the knob all the way to the right, one hundred percent.

The sudden shock was too much for him, he passed out.

Later he woke up in his cell,

They were putting a food tray in the cell for him.

When they left him he levitated the food tray and brought it to him. He could tell his power was back and even stronger than ever before. Today he would make his move.

He now knew where that weapon was at.

That would be the first thing he would take care of.

After he finished eating he focuses his mind on the man who was guarding the weapon.

With no warning he picked the man up and slammed him into a block wall. Then he destroyed the weapon.

Ed had just come into the building; he would be at the door any moment. Ed walked up and opened the door and said,

“Well Adam, are you ready for this day? “

“Yes, I have been waiting for this day for a long time.”

“What do you mean?”

With one thought Adam forced Ed into the cell.

Adam stepped out into the hall and said. “I’ll get to you later. “Adam then took care of all the security guards both inside and out by taking their guns and locking them in a cell.

He found all the people that were there against their will and led them to the front door and told them all to go home.

Neighbors saw the people come out running and called the police.

Within thirty minutes there were at least forty police cars and three swat teams.

Adam brought one of the security guards and sent him out to talk to the police.

He told him to tell them that he wanted to talk to whoever was in charge.

Adam heard someone on a megaphone say “Adam come out with your hands in the air.”

At that time a shot rang out.

It crashed through a window and hit Adam in the left arm knocking him to the floor. Adam screamed with pain and anger. He focuses his mind on the policemen and the cars all around the building. It looked like a tornado was coming through the neighborhood. There were cops and cars going through the air and crashing into buildings.

It all lasted about fifteen minutes.

Adam got up and went back through the hall to one of the doctor’s rooms. He got some tape and bandage and bandaged his arm the best he could.

Adam then went to the top of the building and looked at what he had done.

He read their minds and looked for snipers but saw none.

In his mind he told them to get their people out of here or I will destroy you all.

Then he saw two choppers coming at him, he caused them to crash into each other and they fell to the ground.

He looked down and saw everyone leaving the area

He said to himself good they are leaving.

It won't be long till dark then I will get away.

After a while he looked down and everyone was gone.

Adam was about to leave when he saw four jets fly over. They were flying very low so he knew they were looking for him.

He stood up and one of the jets made a circle and was coming right at him. The pilot pulled the trigger to fire a rocket but it did not fire. He went over Adam's head and started to make a circle and the rocket exploded blowing a wing off the jet. Two more jets came at him from opposite directions. He caused them to fire on each other and they shot each other down. The last jet left the area.

It was now dark but the city was well lit. With one thought he caused a blackout in all of L A.

He then flew away, next stop Denver.

Chapter Sixteen
Denver

He landed in Heaven's back yard.

Heaven and her parents were watching the news on TV about L A.

Adam said in his mind, "Heaven can you hear me."

A voice came back to him. "I hear you Adam, where are you?"

"I'm at your back door."

Heaven jumped up and said, "Adam is at the back door."

They all jumped up and ran to the back door.

Heaven opened the door and Adam walked in.

"You're hurt" said Heaven when she saw his bandaged arm.

"Yes, they shot me when I was trying to talk to them."

Her mother said, "Sit down Adam and let me look at that arm."

Her Dad said, "Boy you tore the hell out of the L A Police department and them three jets also."

"Yes, I lost my temper when they shot me."

Heaven said, "Where will you go now Adam?"

"I've got to leave this country that's for sure. "

After dressing his wound Heaven's parents went into the front room to let them talk.

"Heaven I can't tell you where I am going, they could get it out of you. "

"Adam, I want to go with you. "

"I'm sorry Heaven but I can't take you this time, but I will contact you every so often."

Heaven walked over to Adam and put her arms around him.

He put his arms around her and for the first time, they kissed.

Adam said, "I must go now." He walked out the door to the back yard, turned around and said, Good By Heaven."

"Good by Adam, I'll always love you.

Adam smiled, and then shot up into the sky, made two circles around over the house and disappeared into the night to who knows where.

The End