Chapter One

June, 1, 2027

Heaven Dawson had turned into a lovely young lady of twenty five years old.

She had moved to New York right after graduating from college.

She had only been there for a couple of years.

She had been lucky enough to land a job at one of New York City's largest television station and had her own apartment.

She the traffic reporter and she loved flying around in a helicopter all day.

She was feeling pretty prod of herself.

She still could not help thinking about Adam.
He had been gone for twelve years now.

They were in touch with each other a lot the first five years.

She had only communicated with him twice in the last seven years.

She had no idea where he had gone but she hoped he was alright.

The last time she had communication with him he told her his powers were much stronger and he was learning there were a lot of things that he could do that he didn't know about before.

She had taken journalism in college and she hoped someday to become an anchor.

Her job consisted of flying around the city giving reports on the traffic.

Her pilot was a man named Larry Davis.

He had been doing the same for about fifteen years.

It was Monday morning and all seemed to be going well on the traffic situation.

Then a call came over the radio for them to go to the east side.

There was a fire on the twenty fifth floor of a fifty story building.

When they arrived they saw people coming out of the building. There were flames coming out the windows of the twenty fifth floor.

Every one above the fire was trapped there and they had all gone to the roof.

The building was in danger of collapsing or toppling over.

The fire department could not get a hose up that high
They could see at least two hundred people on the roof waving at them and begging for help.

There was no way that anyone could help them.

The fire had made its way up two more floors.
It looked like all those people would be lost.

But then out of nowhere came a figure dressed in a dark outfit with a cape flying across the sky.
He had on a black outfit with a cape.

Chapter Two

Captain zodiac

He wore a mask over his head that came down and covered his neck with only his eyes and ears exposed. On his chest was the sign of the zodiac.

He flew to the edge of the building, told the people to all crowd together.

They all did as they were told.

Like magic they were all lifted into the air and taken to the ground.

At that time the top half of the building crumpled and started to topple over. There were hundreds of police and firemen under it.

Everyone started running except the person in the caped outfit. He flew up to the toppling building and stopped it in midair.

Then lowered it to the ground harmlessly.

He asked the fire chief if he had enough hose to reach the fire.

The chief said he did so they hooked all the hose together and He took the hose up to the top and put out the fire.

Then the hero of the day without a word shot up into the sky and disappeared out of sight.

Larry Davis said, “Did I see what I just saw?”

“Yes you did Larry and we caught it live.”

He asked, “Have you ever in your life seen anything like that?”

Heaven said nothing but was thinking to herself, “Yes I have.”

Then in her mind she said, “Adam, Adam are you in New York City?”

A voice came back to her “Hello Heaven how are you?

What are you doing in New York City?”

She said

“ I knew that was you. Will you come and see me?”

Then she told him where she lived.

He said” I’ll be there at nine P M tonight.”

Yes, I’ll be looking for you.

When she arrived back at the station the place was buzzing.

Everyone there was complementing her for the great job she did covering the story.

The producer came and said to all of them.

“I want to know who this super flier is.”

“I want to know where he comes from, anyone who can get an interview with him will get a raze and a per motion.”

Later that night as Heaven was sitting on her couch watching the news about the burning building and thinking about what the producer had said.

She heard a voice in her mind say, “Hello Heaven let me in.”

She got up and went to the door but there was no one there.

“I’m on your balcony.”

She walked over and opens the glass door and invited him in.

He was in the same outfit that he had on earlier.
As he walked in the door she put her arms around him and kissed him.

“Adam I missed you so much.”

“I missed you also Heaven.”

She took him over and they sat on the couch.

“So tell me what you have been doing all these years.
Also I want to do an interview with you”

“Why do you want an interview with me?”

“I work for a television station here in New York.”

“Are you back for good and why are you wearing that outfit?”

“I will stay as long as no one knows who I am. As for the outfit this way no one will recognize me.”

“You are a super hero so what do you call yourself.”

“My name is Adam.”

“No you are a super hero now you must have a super hero name.”

“O K you give me a name.”

Heaven thought for a moment then said,

“How about Captain Zodiac.”

“Captain Zodiac, Not bad Heaven, ok when do you want to do the interview?”

“How about Saturday night around seven pm?”
“OK that will be fine with me, anything for my Heaven.”

Chapter Three

The Interview

When Heaven got to work the next morning the producer was raving, “why can’t anyone find out something about this man?”

“We need to get this story before anyone else does.”

Heaven said, “Sir I know who he is.”

“Well who is he?”

“His name is Captain Zodiac

“How do you know this?”

“He told me so last night.”

“How did you contact him?”

“I can only tell you that I will do an interview with him soon.”

“ Also the interview will be done with a camcorder and in privet .”

“OK but you find out all that you can about him.”
“I’ll do a good job, you just get my raze and per motion ready.”

Saturday afternoon and Heaven was getting things sit up for the interview.

She had refreshments and good wine, the camcorder was set on the tripod and ready to go.

Then in her mind she heard Adam’s voice.

“Heaven.”

”Yes Adam.”

“is it all set for tonight?”

“Everything is ready Adam, you can come any time.”

“ OK I’ll be there in a few.”

“Alright Adam but I want you to pretend like we just met the other night, it will make a better interview.”

“OK.”

A Few Moments later she heard, “Heaven I’m on your balcony.”

She went to the door and let him in.
When she opened the door Adam said. "Hello"
"Hello." She said.
Then she had him sat down.

She then went and got him a glass of wine.
She readjusted the camcorder and begin the interview.

Now she said, "Who are you??"
I am Captain zodiac>"
"Are you from this earth?"
"Yes the earth is my home."

"Are you human."
" I eat, sleep, laugh, cry, I feel pain and I bleed so I guess I'm human."

Why are you here in New York?
"Because I make my home in New York and I think the world needs me. I am not only here for New York but for the world. Left alone I think humanity will destroy itself."

“ Do you think you have that much power that you can save the world from itself?”

“ My powers are great but as for your question I guess we’ll just have to wait and see”.

“ Can you love and hate, do you have emotions like the rest of us?”

“ I loved my parents and yes there are some that I hate. I love this country and I love this world. I just hate some of the people in it . They kill for greed and sometimes just for pleasure.

I am here for a reason, I don’t know everything but I do know that.

“ How are you able to fly and do you have any weaknesses?”

“There are some things that I will not answer and you just hit on two of them.

“ Are you married or do you have a girlfriend?”

“ I am not married but there is someone I consider to be my girlfriend.”

“Do you intend to marry her someday?”

“ Maybe.”

“As soon as you do something heroic you fly away, why do you do that?””

“ I don’t do what I do for fame or glory.”

“ Why do you do it?”

“ Because I can.”

The interview lasted for about an hour.

After they were through they had something to eat.

Then they poured the wine and talked about old times.

After a time Adam stood up and said

“Well I must be going now.”

Heaven said “You don’t have to leave you know.”

“I know, I can read your mind remember, but I don’t think we should start anything like that right now.”

Chapter Four

ADAM STOPS A RUMBLE

Well I love you Adam and I will be here for you if you ever want me.”

“It’s not that I don’t want you Heaven, you know I am a wanted man for what I did in L A.”

“I know but that doesn’t matter to me.”

Well let’s just think about that some more, ok.”

“OK Adam.”

They kissed goodnight then Adam went to the balcony and flew away into the night.

As he was flying around the city he saw two rival gangs getting ready to face each other for a gang fight.

They were about two hundred feet apart and walking toward each other.

Adam flew down and landed between them.

“Hay fellows,” said Adam

“Who the hell are you?” one of the gang members said.

Another spoke up.

“Hay man, that’s the super hero that was on t v today.

“Well what you want here super hero, this is our turf.”

Adam said,” It looks like you fellows are getting ready to fight and someone could get hurt that way.”

Well what you going to do about it?”

“I’m going to stop you.”

Both gangs started laughing.

There are at least thirty of us so how you going to stop anything.”

At that time Adam levitated the one doing the talking and dropped him into a dumpster.

All the rest on both sides started after Adam.

He took control of all of them and turned them all around and made them skip around in a circle and then back in the direction from which they came.

When they were all out of sight the one in the dumpster started laughing and said,

“ that’s the funniest thing I ever saw, you are ok man.”

Adam lifted him out of the dumpster and made him start skipping away. He was laughing until he got out of sight.

Adam flew away.

He stopped a couple of muggings and the police was chasing a car going very fast.

He caused the engine to stop and the police arrested the man.

Chapter Five

Professor Jawahar Mehru

Atop a hill overlooking the ocean stands a mansion of unknown wealth.

Inside this fantastic dwelling the most expensive decor in the world. On its walls only the most expensive paintings of all known artist.

Who lives in this mansion? None other than the world renown author of many books about physick powers such as Mental telepathy and levitation using mind control.

Professor Jawahar Mehru, The world's only Trillion air.

a young man of twenty seven years and rather hansom.
With long black hair that came down to the middle of his back.

He kept it combed pulled back and rolled into a bun on the back of his head
Indian style.

Could this be our super hero?

He was dark complected and look like he may be from India.

Yes, it is our super hero.

Adam had spent the last twelve years in India.
The first five years of that time he spent writing his books.

This earned him enough money to buy a large fishing boat.

He then hired a crew and searched the ocean floor for sunken treasure.

He used his psychic power to find the treasure and his levitation power to bring it up.
Needless to say it didn't take long for him to become the richest man in the world.

Life became a drag for him, he needed some excitement in his life.
He decided he would fight crime and other mishaps in the world starting with New York city.

Having Heaven living in New York was a real treat for him.
He knew he loved her and someday he would ask her to be his wife.

The darkness of night came and he was on his way to New York City.

Most of the thoughts he was receiving was just chatter.
It seemed like the night was starting out peaceful.

Then suddenly a barrage of thoughts entered his mind.
It consisted of prayers and screams and crying.
But it was not coming from the ground.
Then he heard the mayday, we have lost all power, our plane is going down.

Adam increased his speed to intercept the plane.
It was starting to fall very fast.
He flew up under the plane and stopped it from falling.
He then adjusted his direction and took it to the airport and sat it down at the hanger. With news reporters all over the place he came out from under the plane and flew away as people cheered him. Yaaaaaa Captain Zodiac

He loved using his powers for good.
It's a shame that they would not listen to him in L A seventeen years ago.
O well That's all behind me now, I'm a new person and I will do good for mankind.

Not much happened that night, he stopped a few muggings and two car chases. Then he went home for the night.

Chapter Six

An old enemy

Professor Jawahar Mehru had settled down for the evening to read a good book.

One half hour into the book his thoughts were interrupted by Heaven's call for help. "Adam Adam I need your help, please help me."

Adam said "Heaven what is wrong?"

"Adam I have been kidnapped."

"Where are you now?"

"I don't know, I am tied up gagged and blindfolded, and I am in a car, I think there are two men and a driver."

Adam rushed to the bedroom to change into his Captain Zodiac suit.

"Adam is you there?"

"Yes I'm here just keep calm and I will find you. Let me know if you find out where you are."

"Yes, I will."

Adam focuses his mind on the people around her.

There were no thought patterns.

Adam Thought, That is very strange, no one can make their minds go blank.

"Adam we have stopped and they are taking me out of the car."

"Can you see where you are?"

“No I am still blindfolded but I can hear the ocean.”

“That’s good Heaven keep your ears open you may hear something else that will help.”

“OK I will.”

Adam begins to search the coast line to see if he could pick up anything.

He couldn’t understand why he picked up no thoughts from the men in the car.

They must have a way to block all thoughts from me.

Then Adam got a break.

There was a news helicopter passing by but they hadn’t seen him.

He flew up to where they could see him.

He contacted the pilot’s thoughts and told them to follow him.

They did as they were told.

He contacted Heaven. Can you hear a helicopter?”

“No I can’t.”

“Let me know if you do.”

“OK Adam I will.”

Adam kept flying and the helicopter stayed right with him.

After about ten minutes Heaven said. “Adam I hear it but it’s faint.”

OK let me know when you think it is over where you are.”

“OK.”

After about five minutes Heaven said “Now Adam Now.”

Adam flew down and landed next to a very large beach house.

He now knew that Heaven was inside this house.
At that time he got another thought.

Adam said “ I know that thought pattern from somewhere.”

“Now I know. Hello Ed it’s been a long time.”

“Adam, I knew Captain Zodiac had to be the same as soon as I saw you on the news.

“Hello Ed yes it has been a while.”

“What took you so long to find me?”

“Well nobody wants to rush into a situation you know.”“

Well come on in the door is not locked.”

With just a thought Adam opened the door and walked in.

Ed was standing by a fireplace.

“Hello Adam come on and has a drink for old time sake.”

“Am I going to regret not killing you Ed?”

At that time Adam searched Ed’s Mind.

“Androids that explains why I couldn’t pick their thoughts.”

“Very good Adam, I keep forgetting you can read my mind.”

“What do you want Ed?”

“I want your powers you know that Adam.”

“Where is Heaven?”

Oh yes I almost forgot about her. Watch the TV screen.
“

Adam looked at the TV and saw Heaven tied to a table.
Her head was in a giletene with a large blade above her.

“One wrong move from you Adam and she could lose her head.

“One thing is for sure Ed if anything happens to her you will lose yours.” “

At that time the door opened and two men walked in. Adam looked at them and tried to read their thoughts but there were none.

“I commend you Ed they look like real men.”

“ Yes, one of my prize inventions.”

“ You have a great mind, it’s too bad you don’t use it to help mankind.”

“Is that what you are doing now super hero?”

“ That’s right.”

“You killed a lot of cops in California and now you want to help mankind, that’s a laugh.”

“They killed my mother and father and they shot me and I was only fifteen years old.”

“Well.” Said Ed,” These Androids are stronger than ten men so don’t try anything you hear.”

Adam had searched the house with his mind and he knew exactly where Heaven was.

The two androids took hold of his arms.

Ed told them to take him to the lab.

At that time Ed turned his attention from the of the TV.

Adam thought now is my chance.

He focus his mind on the two braces holding up the blade of the gilteen and bent them in far enough that the blade couldn’t fall.

Then with one thought he popped the heads off of the androids.

Sparks and flames came out of their neck and they fell to the floor.

Ed said, “ that’s enough Adam.” he was holding a remote in his hand.

This will drop that blade down and no more Heaven.”

Adam broke the straps and let Heaven up and brought her to the door of the stairway where he was.

Adam then took the remote from ed brought it to him and said “ It doesn’t work and pushed the button.

At that time Heaven walked into the room.

Adam told Ed to go outside and tell the other android to get in the car.

After he did that Adam told Ed to get into the back seat and he did.

Adam then crushed the top of the car down to the top of the seats.

He told Heaven he would be right back then he lifted the car and himself and flew out over the ocean a few miles and dropped it into the ocean.

“Well ed if you can get out of that one then I guess you got a right to live.”

Then he went back to the mainland and picked up Heaven and took her home.

When they landed on her Balcony Heaven said.

“ Adam you keep saving my life, thank you.”

He took her in his arms and pulled her close and kissed her, then he said.

“I would do it a thousand times if I had to, but this time I wasn’t that sure I could.”

“Adam you can do anything.

Adam turned his back on her for a moment then turned back to her and said.

“Tell me Heaven have you ever heard of Professor Jawahar Mehru?”

“I think just about everyone has heard of him, he is the richest man in the world, but no one has ever seen him.”

“Would you like to meet him?”

“ Of cores I would.”

He took her hand and said

“here we go.”

They made the trip back to the Mehru mansion.

They landed on a balcony . Adam opened the door and they walked into a large library.

Adam told her to have a seat and he would go and get the Professor.

Heaven was amazed at the number of books that were in the room. She was looking through the book shelves when the door opened and a voice said,

“You wish to see me.”

She turned around and she was stunned.

Adam,”

“ The very same.”

“You are Professor Jawahar Mehru

,”

“He and I are the same.”

“ How did you get to be so rich?”

“ The ocean holds lots of treasure and it was easy for me, I just found it with my psychic power and levitated it to the ship. Then I sold it to the highest bidder.”

“ I brought you here to show you what life with me would be like.”

“ You could not keep your job and you would have to travel with body guards, it’s a very private life.”

“Adam I love you and I don’t care how much money you have or what kind of life you lead.”

“OK Heaven will you marry me?”

“ Yes Adam Yes Yes Yes.”

He then placed a very large diamond ring on her finger.

“We will set a date soon, in the meantime you can stay here if you wish.”

Heaven decided to stay there after she went to her apartment and called to quit her job.

Chapter Seven

The Wedding

They decided to have the wedding in two months.

Adam told Heaven to send for her mother and father to come and help with the wedding.

Also if they wanted to stay here and live they could.

That night Heaven called her parents on the phone.

“Hello.”

“Hello, Mother.”

“Heaven is that you

“Yes Mother I just wanted to let you know that I’m getting married in two months.

“Well who is the lucky man.”

It's Adam mother, you know who my heart has always belong to."

" Yes I figured if he was still alive you and he would get together.

" Mother I want you and dad to come to New York and live with us. This house is so big that we may not run in to each other for a week at a time."

" How did you get a house like that."

"Because Adam is very very rich and he doesn't mind if you and Dad live with us."

"Also I want you to help me plan for the wedding."

" OK honey I will talk to your Dad and see what he has to say about it. I don't think he will want to miss your wedding."

"Thank you Mother I'll talk to you later, I love you.

" I love you to dear, good bye."

Later that evening she got a call from her Parents telling her that they would be there in a week.

Heaven told them that she would have them picked up at the airport.

The week passed slowly but it was now time to go pick up her parents.

She ask Adam if he wanted to go with her but he said that he had some reading to do and he would greet them when they got there.

When she went outside the limo was waiting for her.

The driver opened the door and she got in and the limo pulled away.

The limo was wonderful.

It had a seat facing the front and two other seats facing each other.

It also had a fully stocked bar and fridge.

They pulled up at the airport and the driver said ,” I’ll have them paged ma’am.

Then he left and went into the airport.

A few moments later he came back was a cart with baggage on it and her parents following behind.

She opened the door and got out to hug and kiss them.

Then she said come on and get in out of the heat.

She got into one of the seats that face each other and gave her parents the seat she was in.

The driver closed the door and got in and left the airport.

Her dad said.” This is some car Adam must be loaded.”
“Yes he is but wait until you see the house we are living in.

When they got close the driver pushed a button and the gates opened.

The limo pulled into the drive and he pushed the button again and the gates closed.

On the right was a twelve bedroom house.

Her dad said “ Wow that is some house.

Heaven laughed and said.

“ Dad that is where the help lives our house is on ahead a ways.”

They went around a curve and up a hill and stopped in front of the mansion.

“This is our house.”

Dad said. “ Hell this ain’t no house it’s a hotel.”
Heaven laughed and said, “ come on in Adam is waiting for us.”

When they entered the mansion one of the servants met them at the door.

Heaven said, “ Where is the professor?”

“He is in the study Man.”

Tell him we are waiting for him in the den.”

“Yes Man.”

They went into the den and sat down.

At that time another servant came in and asked.

“Would you like refreshments Man?”

Heaven Answered, “Yes bring us some coffee. “

“Yes Man.”

After a bit the servant came in with a tray sat it down on the coffee table and pored the coffee. She asked will there be anything else. Heaven said no thank you that will be all. The servant turned and walked out of the room.

At that time Adam came into the room and sat down next to Heaven after shaking hands with her dad and kissing her mother.

“ How was your flight?” He asked

“ Just fine.” they said.

Chapter Eight

Captain zodiac's Greatest Challenge

The wedding went very well and honeymoon was a trip around the world on their three hundred foot yacht

Time passes.

It is now 2035 Adam is now thirty fiveyears old.

They have four year old Twins, a boy and a girl

Adam's powers have increased tenfold he is now using ninety percent of his brain year.

Things have changed in the world.

Muslims have taken over the world except for America Israel England and South Korea.

These four countries have all dropt out of the UN.

All Muslims have been told to leave the country.

The new UN building is now in Iran.

CIBER attacks are common place.

Two cities, La and Chicago have been hit with nukes by terrorist.

There have been conflicts between warships on the high seas. It was reported that the UN would be meeting tomorrow to decide what to do about the Infidels.

Adam told Heaven, " I have got to try to do something about the trouble in the world."

" What can you do?"

" I'm not sure but I told you once that I was put here for something, well maybe this is it."

"Adam you can do anything that you set your mind to do."

" I wish I was as sure as you are."

Adam kissed her and the children good bye and put on his Captain zodiac outfit and flew away.

He arrived in Aram before daylight.

He entered the UN building through an unguarded door.

Then he found a safe place to stay out of sight and let the place fill up.

He could hear the chatter from the big meeting room as all the people from all the countries of the UN came into the room.

Then he heard them bring the meeting to order.

He stepped out into a hall way that led to the meeting room.

He entered the room, there must have been a thousand people there.

When he entered the room he closed all the doors and walked to the podium and said in the Arabic language.

“ I will speak to the members of the UN.

Then he said it in twenty seven other languages.

Someone asked “who are you?”

“I am Captain zodiac and I intend to stop this war before it starts.”

“How can you stop it you are not Ala.”

“ No I am not but I do have great powers.”

“What kind of powers do you have?”

At that time Adam levitated everyone in the room chair and all about ten feet off of the floor.

Then he sat them back down again.

“Now shut your mouth and let me tell you what I have to say.”

Then he started.

“ I make my home in America. I am a free man. I also am a citizen of the world and I do not want you to destroy it.

Therefore you will dismantle all your weapons of mass destruction.

You will downsize your military and hold free elections so the people can decide who they want to run their country.

After you have done all this then I will see that America and their allies do the same.”

One spoke up. “ We will destroy all infidels and your precious America.”

They all begin to cheer the man.

Adam said “Suet yourself.”

Adam focus his mind on one of the Chinese bunkers, opened it and set of the missal then set it in the direction of the UN building.

Then he told them what he had done.

He released all cell phones so they could contact others.

It wasn't long before they were in a panic.

Adam said, “ I can stop it.”

“ Nothing can stop it.” Another said

Adam sent the missal up into outer space and exploded it.

“ Now you see that I can control your missals so do not attack my country.”

Then he walked out of the building and flew away.

When he returned home he lay down and slept for hours.

Things went well for a while.

Then thirty five days passed almost to the minute.

Alerts came on TV and radio and whistles started blowing.

It was a warning of a nuclear attack.

Adam put on his Captain zodiac outfit then flew up high in the sky where his powers were stronger.

The sky to the east were full of missiles and all headed his way.

With all the power he had in his mind he turned them around and sent them back to where they came from One after another he sent them home. There were explosions all over Iran China Russia and north Korea and anywhere else they came from.

He kept this up for at least four hours.

The strain was taking it's toile on his brain.

His head felt like it would split in too.

Finely the missals stopped coming.

It was all he could do to keep his self-levitated.

By the time he reached the mainland he was only a few feet off the water.

At the shore he dropped to the ground and lay still.

It was dark when he awoke laying in the sand on the beach.

He struggled to get to his feet.

He could see his house but it was so far that he didn't think he could make it.

He tried calling for Heaven in his mind but she couldn't hear him.

I must be losing my power he thought.

He crawled up the hill and it was about five hundred yards to the mansion. He got to his feet and begin to stagger to the house but fell and lay still. Heaven got up from the bed and went out on the balcony for some air.

In the moonlight she saw him trying to walk and fall.

She ran down the stairs and out the back door then ran to him. She sat down beside him and held him in her arms.

A satellite camera had caught most of what he had done.

It was all over the news about how he had saved America.

Heaven held him in her arms and rocked back and forth.

“ You saved America my love, You saved America.

You are my super hero.”

But Adam could not hear her, for his lifeless body lay silent in the arms of his love.

The End
