Chapter One

Heaven had just returned from the funeral for her husband Professor Jawahar Mehru. No one knew that he was Captain Zodiac. They would think that Captain Zodiac just went away, never to return.

When They returned home she took the twins to their play room. she thought, what will I do now that he is gone? How can I ever get along without him?

The twins, Adam Christian Mehru and Alyssa Christian Mehru were four years old.

She watched them playing together and thought, I sure do love my children. They stopped, looked up at her and smiled then went back to playing. Heaven thought to herself, My God they acted like they heard me think that. Again they stopped, looked at her then looked at each other and went back to playing. Heaven left the playroom and walked down the hall to her own room.

As she lay on her bed, thoughts of Adam was rushing through her mind.

she couldn't help wondering if the children had some of Adam's powers.

Each time she closed her eyes she would see Adam.

She was so in love with him that she didn't know if she could go on without him.

But at the same time she knew that he had given his life for millions of people in this Country.

Her thoughts tormented her then finely She slept.

"Hello my darling. " said Adam"

Heaven said"Adam,Oh Adam I thought I would never see you again."

"I love you Heaven, I am sorry that I had to leave you but I had no choice in the matter."

I know Adam, and I know you would not have left unless you had to. "

"Heaven you know nothing can ever keep us apart, not even death."

Yes Adam, I knew if you could you would contact me."

"I will always be with you in sprit, please remember that, and someday we will be together again and that will be forever.."

" I will always love you Adam, I will."

" I must go now my love. If you ever need me I will always be there."

" I love you Adam."

"I love you to Heaven."

She awoke. .

It was the first sleep that she had since Adam died in her arms.

She thought, "Was it a dream or did Adam contact her ?

Yes, He did contact her, she was shure of it now."

After a while she got up and left her room.

Professor Jawahar Mehru had left everything to her so she was now the richest person in the world.

Heaven walked down the hall to the play room and open the door. To her shock the children were holding hands and levitated about eight feet off of the floor. When they saw her they came down to the floor.

Heaven said, "I knew you had the power."

Adam said, "We're sorry mother.

Daddy told us not to let anyone see us do that."

"I'm

your Mother, It's alright for me to see you do that.

but you can't let anyone else see you do things like that.

There are bad people out there that would take you away.
They would hurt you and do bad things to you to try and find out how you do these things."

Alyssa said, "Daddy could do it mommy."

"Yes I know honey, your Daddy was very strong and he died a hero." "Now I want you to promise me that you will only do that in this room." "We promise Mommy." said Alyssa "Well Adam." "Yes Mother
I promise."

"Alright now clean yourselves up; it's almost time for dinner."
Heaven closed the door and went on downstairs to the den.
Her parents were waiting for her there.
In a little while the twins came downstairs to join them.
Then they all went into dinner together.

It was very quiet at the dinner table for some time.
Then Heaven's mother broke the silence and said.
" "What will you do now Heaven?"
Heaven said, "I will go on with my life and raise the twins.
After all I am now the richest woman in the world.
yet I would give it all to have Adam back."
"I know you would honey.

we loved Adam to.
but now we must let him rest."

Time passed and the twins grew.
Their mental powers got much stronger.
It seemed that in most things they worked together at it.

They were now eight years old.

Heaven was watching the morning news.

The reporter asked another man.

"Sir, did you see what happen at the railroad crossing last night?"

"Yes I did, I was sitting behind the car that was stalled on the track."

"What happened?"

"Well the train was moving very fast.

The man couldn't get his car started.

He had a woman and three kids in the car."

"Then what happen?"

"Well you're not going to believe this,

but a boy and girl flew over the car.

The car jumped forward just as the train went by."

" Did you say they flew?"

"That's what I said, they flew right over the car.

Then it jumped forward out of the way of the train."

"What happen to the boy and girl?"

"They flew away."

"Well, thanks."

said the reporter

Then he turned toward the camera and smiled and said.

“Whatever he was on I want some.”

Heaven got up and went up to Adam’s room.

She open the door a little.

he was asleep.

Then she went to Alyssa’s room and peaked in.

she was also asleep.

Heaven went back downstairs to watch the rest of the news.

It turned out that a lot of other people had seen the flying boy and girl.

Later the twins got up and came down to eat.

Heaven told them after they ate to come into the den.

After eating they came into the den and sat down.

Heaven said,

“I told you two not to let anyone see you do the things you do.

but you were out flying last night and a lot of people saw you.”

Adam said,

"But mother you would not want us to let them people die would you?"

"You are just like your father.

You think it's your place to save the world." Alyssa said.

"But what good are our powers if we can't do good and help people?"

"All I am saying is you are only eight years old.

Wait until you are older to become super heroes."

Adam said, "Mother, we are learning at a college level, doesn't that count for something?"

"So you think you are ready to be super heroes.

well, let me think about that one.

But until I tell you different you are grounded to this house. and no more flying."

Chapter Two

Four years passed.
the twins were now twelve years old.
Their wisdom was beyond compare.

They had read every book in the huge library.
Their powers were at their highest potential.
Compared to the normal human they were as Gods.
They had not found a limit to what they could levitate.
The powers of Adam would not have been a match to them.
In all this they still had respect for their fellow human.

On this day they had gotten out of bed and dressed.
Then they went down to eat.
Their mother was not in the dining room.
She was not in the den or the living room.
They went back upstairs and went to her room.
she was not there.
They tried to contact her by telepathy.
They got nothing.

They went back to her room to look for clues.
Pinned to her pillow was a note.
It read "I have your mother.
I know you two have the powers of your father.
Your mother is alive.
However you must find her within seven days.
After that she will not be alive.

Also you will not contact the police.
If you do she will join your father.
So let's just see how smart you really are."

They tried again to pick up her thought wave but got nothing.

"Adam, I just don't understand.
If she were anywhere in this world,
we should be able to get a reading on her."

"I know that Alyssa,
but if she were in a coma or something like that,
we couldn't contact her."

"What are we going to do?"

"I don't know Alyssa but we have seven days to figure it out."

, "We are going to have to fly to find her."

"Well, people will see us."

"Yes but they won't know us, if we make a costume to wear like daddy's did."

They went into the sewing room and started to make their costumes.

Adam made a black jumpsuit and a mask.

On the chest he has a large A.

Alyssa had a white jumpsuit.

On the front she had a large O with lightning strikes crossed in the circle.

They also wore a mask that covered the mouth and nose, leaving the eyes and ears open.

Chapter Three

They were now Alpha & Omega.

They flew long and fast for at least a hundred miles around.
They were trying to pick up their mothers thought waves.
Without success and returning home.
They were also very tired and hungry.
After eating they took a nap to rest up.

Alyssa said, "What will we do now Adam?"
"I don't know, there must be a clue somewhere."
"But all we have is the note."
"The note, that's it Adam, how could we have not thought of it?."

They went into their mother's room where they had left the note.
Adam picked up the note and held it to his forehead.
"I'm getting something here,
here Alyssa you try it."
Alyssa held the note to her forehead.
"Yes I'm getting something also.
but I have never experienced these thought waves before."
"Nor have I, but that's what we are looking for this time out."
"I understand," said Alyssa.

At that point they flew out of the house and headed west.
in search of the mysterious thought wave.
They were getting very hungry so they landed in an apple orchard.
The farmer saw them eating his apples.

He said, "What are you kids doing helping yourself to my apples?
You know I could have you arrested."

Adam said, "Sir we were very hungry and we have no money to pay."
The farmer said,
"Well we are getting ready to eat.
and my pickers quit me this morning.
so I guess they will all rot anyway."
They went in with the farmer and ate a good meal.

When they were done eating, Adam ask the farmer,
"How many baskets do you have?"
"I have enough baskets for every apple I have on the trees."
"Where are they?"
"They are in the barn."
"Is that the truck you hall them on?"
" "Yes it is."

Adam and Alyssa walked out into the yard and said. "Watch this."
The barn door opened and baskets started flying out of the barn.
Then apples started flying off the trees and landing in the baskets.
When a basket would get full it would fly up on the truck.
In less than an hour all the apples were picked and loaded.

The farmer said,
"Never in my born days have I ever seen anything like that,
I just don't know how to thank you."
Alyssa said "Sir you thanked us when you fed us."
Adam said, "Good bye now sir we must be going.
Please don't tell anyone about us."
"Don't worry I won't, no one would believe me anyway, Ha Ha"

At that time they flew up in the air and headed west again.
The thought wave they were looking for was getting stronger.
But they knew they were not there yet.

It was the evening of the fourth day.
They were in Indiana and keeping to the country side.
They came upon a large four story building.
It was on fire.
There were a lot of kids and some grownups out in the yard.
In a window of the top floor were some more kids.
They were screaming for help.
Adam and Alyssa landed in a cornfield.

They levitated the kids to the ground.

They searched the building for more kids but there were none.
None of the people ever saw them.

Finely they were over the Rocky Mountains and the thought waves were very strong. It was the sixth night, only one day to go. They landed in the woods above a small town.

There was a large house that sat on a hill.
Adam said, "The thought waves are coming from that large house."

"What will we do Adam?" "I will draw their attention while you try to find Mother."

"Sounds good, how will you draw their attention?"

"Well how about an earthquake?"

That should get them out of the house;
just let me know when you are ready."

Alyssa made a wide swing around the house.
Then told Adam she was ready.
Adam caused the ground around the house to tremble.
To the people in the house it felt like an earthquake.
They all ran out of the house.

Adam told Alyssa to go for it.

Alyssa went in through an upstairs window.
She checked all the rooms until she found her mother in one of them.

"Adam I found her, come on in."

"I'm on my way."

Adam went around the back of the house and went through the window.

He found Alyssa and his mother.

His mother had a tube run into her arm, he took it out.

"She will wake up soon." said Adam.

At that moment the door slammed shut and steel reinforced walls slid together.

Then the TV on the wall came on. An elder man was on the screen.

"Hello Children of Adam, I'm so glad you could make it.
what took you so long? "

"Who are you?" said Adam.

At that moment Heaven awoke and sat up on the bed.

"Who am I? Well my name is Edward Hayes, but you can call me Ed."
Your Father and I were old friends.

He was your age when we first met.

Heaven spoke up, "I thought you were dead."

"Well I would have been if Adam had not left me one Android.

He ripped the top off of that car and saved my life."

"What do you want with us?" asked Adam. "

"Well what I want is to take out your brain and see what makes you tick."

Adam said," Do you think this room will hold us?"

"Ha, that room is put together like a Wells Fargo safe;
of cores it will hold you."

Adam said, "Let's see if it will."

He tried to move the wall but it would not move.

"I see what you mean." said Adam.

Adam saw an extension cord move a little behind Ed.

He looked at Alyssa, she was smiling.

He nodded at her.

The cord moved over and around Ed's neck.

It pulled him back to the wall and held him there.

Adam focuses his mind on the keyboard.
He forced down the button that said open wall.

The wall over the door slid open and they all ran out of the room.
They levitated Heaven and flew out the window to the top of the hill.
They landed and Adam turned around and destroyed the house.
When he finished it was just a pile of brick and rubble.
"Nothing could live through that." Adam said.

Heaven said," I only want to know one thing.
Omega said," What's that Mother?"
where in the world did you get those outfits?"
They all had a good laugh and hugged each other.
Then they started the long trip home.
They flew only at night.
They stopped only to spend the day with the apple farmer
He was glad to help them.
He gave them a place to rest through the day.
Night came and they flew the rest of the way home.

Arriving home they all took a shower and ate.
Then got a lot of well needed sleep.

They awoke and showered then went down for dinner.
Heaven's Mother and Father were in the dining room.
Heaven's mother said, "Where have you all been?
We haven't seen you for days.
I know this is a big place but it isn't that big."

Heaven said, "We decided to go out.
We wanted to take a look at the countryside."
Her Mother said, "Heaven do the children have the power?"
"Yes Mother, they have the power."
"I thought so after hearing all over the news about flying children."
Dad said, "I sure hope they will be careful.
they are just kids you know."
"Don't worry Dad; they can take care of themselves."
"What makes you think so?" said Mother.
"They have proven that to me and that's enough."
"Well Heaven if you are sure."
"I'm sure Mother."

After dinner Adam and Alyssa told their mother to come out back.
They said that they wanted to show her something.
When they got out in the back yard.
Adam took a ten can out and set it on top of a fence post.
Adam said, "Now watch this Mother, go ahead Alyssa."

Alyssa stepped forward one step and looked at the can.
A beam of red light the size of a roll of dimes shot out of her eye.
It hit the can.
It melted the can and it ran down the fence post.

“What was that?” Heaven asked.
“It’s a new power I have been working on.” said Alyssa.

Adam said, “ We are learning new things all the time, we don’t know what our limit is. Now watch this”
He gave Alyssa a good size rock.
He stood about ten feet from her.
He told her to throw the rock at him.
She threw the rock and it bounced away before hitting him.
he said, “That’s a force field.”

Heaven said, “Most people with money get Doctors and Lawyers from their children. Me, I get super heroes.” They all laugh.

As time went on the news was full of sightings of the two.
The paper read what happened to Captain Zodiac?

Was he killed in the nuclear war? And are these his children.
No one knows anything about them.
They just appear and help someone then they fly away.
Whoever they are we can be thankful they are on the side of the law.

Also another note, there have been many sightings of UFO's.
"This reporter is wondering if the children are from one of the UFO's."
Adam and Alyssa had seen the UFO's also.

Alyssa said "I wonder where they are from?"
Adam said "I don't know.
But as long as they don't bother anyone we will leave them alone."
"OK, but if they start trouble they will face Alfa & Omega."

A year had passed.
The UFO sightings had become more frequent but still no mishaps had been reported.

All were at dinner.
Heaven's Mother and Father told them they were going to Denver.
They wanted To visit with old friends for a couple of weeks.
They had already got their flight plans.
They were packed and ready to go.

Heaven said, "When are you leaving?"

"Tomorrow evening," said her Mother.

Heaven said, "I'll have the limo ready to take you to the airport."

"That will be fine dear; it will be good to see our old friends again."

The next evening her Mother and Father kissed and hugged them all.

They said good-bye and got in the limo to go to the airport.

That night it was reported that their flight had gone down in Ohio.

The mysterious thing about it was.

there was no one on board the plane when it crashed.

All the people were gone and nowhere to be found.

The same thing happened in Ohio about a week later.

Adam told Heaven to get him and Alyssa tickets for Denver.

for every day the next week. She declined at first but finely gave in.

she knew what they were doing.

The first day the flight went through with no trouble, the second day, same thing. Two more flights, and no trouble.

On the fifth day about midway through the flight the plane started to shake. At that time they were all transported to one of the UFO's.

The plane went down empty like the other two. They were all packed tightly in a room. The flight lasted about two hours. They were all lead out of the spaceship into a compound. The aliens looked humanoid but their bodies were shorter and their arms and legs were longer and their heads were bigger.

There were at least a thousand earthlings in the compound. They look around for their Grandparents. After a while Alyssa spotted her Grandmother. She said, "There's Grandmother over there." They made their way over to them. They saw Grandfather sitting on the ground. When they saw the children they jumped up and hugged them. Grandmother said, "My God what are you two doing here?" Adam said, "We came looking for you two." "Do you kids have any idea where we are?"

Adam looked up at the four moons in the sky and said "One thing is for sure, we are not on earth anymore." Grandfather said, "I wonder why they brought us here?" Adam said, "I don't know yet but I hope it isn't for food." Alyssa said, "they mate with the women and make slaves out of the men." Adam asked, "How do you know that."

“ I read ones thoughts; they also know a lot of earth languages.”
“All of their women died of some kind of sickness.
there are only men left.

Grandmother said, “Well I don’t know who is getting the worst deal.
the men as slaves or the women as mates.”

Adam said, “Grandmother, you two just take it easy.
we are going to move around and see what kind of info we can get.
Then we will try to get us home.”

“OK but you two please be careful.”

They found out that they were four light years from earth.
their trip there had been by time travel.
They wondered if the earth was even there anymore.
They also found out that the aliens had one leader.

he was in what would be called a mansion not far away.
He already had twelve wives and would get the pick of the litter.

There were about twenty alien guards around the compound.

They all had a weapon of some kind on their side.
One man tried to protect his wife.
He hit one of the guards.
the guard pulled his weapon and shot the man.
a ray beam disintegrated him.
Adam told everyone that he passed to go to the far end of the compound.
Before long they were at the other end all by themselves.

One of the alien guards came over and took Alyssa by the arm.
Adam used his levitation power to throw him all the way over the twenty foot wall. Adam made his force field around him and Alyssa.
The other guards started firing at them but the ray just bounced off of the force field.

They lifted all the guards and slammed them into the ground.
The men of the crowd took care of them and got their weapons.
As Adam and Alyssa rose into the air the crowd shouted "Alfa & Omega, we love you." As they flew away they opened the gates to the compound. There was war on the alien planet.

The aliens were far advanced but were much slower than the earthlings.
so they were no match for them. They took revenge on the aliens.
Anything with a weapon was a target.

Any slaves they found were set free.

The earthling army grew.

They took alien prisoners and put them in the compound.

It wasn't long until the earthlings had control of the alien city.

The alien leader was captured and his human wives were set free.

He was ready to bargain for his life.

Adam said to him, "You will return all earthlings that want to go back to earth."

"The leader said," But our planet will die without mates."

"You can send a message around the earth for women to come to your world."

You may be surprised at how many you get."

But you can't take any more slaves.

and you can't take women that don't want to go.

We would rather be your friends than your enemies./

and our worlds can trade with each other."

The alien leader smiled and said,

"I agree with all you say and your people will be returned home right away."

All were returned and a peace agreement was signed between the earth and the alien planet.

They ask for volunteer women to go to their planet. and they got over twenty thousand.

Adam and Alyssa and their Grandparents returned home to their mother and a warm welcome.

That night at dinner their grandparents told Heaven they would never complain about the twins being Super Heroes again.

Heaven said," Mother, what were you thinking way out there on that alien planet with all those aliens?"

"Well honey, I was thinking that if I was going to get a new mate. I hoped maybe it would be a young one."

Then she looked at her husband and smiled.

They all had a big laugh...

The End
