Six years had passed since the twins had went to see their Father and then had the vacation in Hawaii.
They were now twenty two years old.
Nothing much had happened the last few years.
They decided that Super Heroes are not needed in today's world.

Alyssa had become a lovely young lady, and was at the top of the societies pages in New York City.
She had lost her heart to Lance Stevens.
He was the star Quarterback of the New York Giants

She had met him at an introduction party.
they held it for him when he first came to New York.

They had been seen a lot together in the past year.
It was big news when they had announced their engagement.
All the papers and T B stations had a field day with it.
It was half time at the Super Bowl.
When he had them to write across the big screen.
"Alyssa will you please marry Lance ?"
He didn't win the Super Bowl but he did score a touchdown with her.
She stood up shook her head and said yes.

Now the wedding was only two months away.
Adam had become the most eligible Bachelor in the world.
and He was having the time of his life.

He was known as the world's richest international playboy.
And in most cases he used that to his advantage.
Heaven was in France on vacation.
She loved France and everything about it.
She always said that if she could move the mansion to France that she would move there.

Her mother and father had moved back to Denver.
They said they missed the old house and all their friends.
But they said they would be back for the wedding.

Even so Heaven made sure that they didn't ever want for anything.

At this time Adam was in Hawaii ,
He loved the Islands and spent most of his time there.
Alyssa was in New York City shopping and making preparations for her wedding.

Heaven would be home soon to help her with the hard stuff.
It was going to be the most extravagant wedding, that New York had ever seen.
After all she was the daughter of the richest woman, or person for that matter, in the world.

After which they would honeymoon by taking a trip around the world
Of Corus they would take the family yacht.
Alyssa was looking at wedding gowns.
they were all so lovely but she knew that Heaven would insist on having a one of a kind dress.

At that moment she heard in her mind.
"Alyssa can you hear me"??
"Of Course I hear you Adam, What do you want"??
"I must see you, I need you to come to Hawaii right away".
"Adam you know I am getting married in two months,

I have a lot to do so whatever it is can't you take care of it"??
"No this is more than I can handle alone.
it will take the both of us and people are dying over here".
She was shocked.
Adam had never admitted before.
there was anything he couldn't handle by himself.

She had to admit that He had raised her curiosity.
"Tell me about it". Said Alyssa.
"I will, but there are things that I must show you,
to make you believe it all, so you must come here".
"Alright I'll take the next flight".

“No, come as Omega,
you will get here faster, and bring my Alfa outfit”.

Alyssa hurried home,
She went directly to her room and put on her Omega outfit.
She thought,” This had better be for real.
Alfa was always pulling practical jokes on her.”
After getting Adam’s Alfa outfit she went to her window.

“Adam, I am not in the mood for one of your practical jokes.”
Adam broke in,” This is on the level Sis, please trust me, I need you here.”
She had never heard him talk like this before.
Whatever was wrong it must be real bad.
She took flight and headed for Hawaii.
Alyssa missed the excitement of the old days.
which had only been about two years,
since they had a good fight with a villain.

She flew very fast and she got to Hawaii in about six hours.
“O K Adam, I’m here in Hawaii.
So let me know where you are”.
“follow my thoughts Alyssa”?
“Yes I have you now, I’ll be right there”.

In a few minutes, Alyssa saw Adam standing on a balcony.
She landed next to him.
“Hello Brother dear.
You had better have a good reason for bringing me here”.
“Come on in Sis, I’ll tell you all about it while we eat”.

As they enjoyed a good meal, He begin.
“Two days ago I was out surfing.
There was a lot of good waves and there were a lot of surfers.
I was waiting my turn to take a wave.
Then I got a danger alert in my mind.

I didn’t know what it was and I couldn’t see anything around.
At first I thought it may be a shark.

But just as I was about to take a wave.
 I saw something very large coming at me.
 I stood up.
 I used my levitation to move my board across the water.

I wanted to draw it away from the other surfers.
 The faster I went, the faster it went.
 Just as I took flight it's head came out of the water and down on my board.
 It bit the board half in to.
 I tried to levitate it out of the water but it was too big".
 "Too big, said Alyssa.
 I have seen you lift at least twenty tons".

"Yes I know.
 "Are you telling me this thing weighed over twenty ton's?"
 "I'm telling you that I could not lift it out of the water."
 on the news it said that six surfers had disappeared.
 Pieces of their boards had washed up on the shore"?
 "Did you get a good look at it?"
 "Yes, it was like nothing that I ever saw before.
 It was bigger than anything known to man in the ocean."

"Have you found out anything about it Adam?"
 "I talked to Hawaii 5 o.
 They said there was a large yacht that turned over.
 It was about thirty miles out, there were no survivors.
 They said that they found no bodies.

Alyssa there were over forty people on that yacht."
 They also told me.
 Things like that had been happening all around the pacific ."
 "Have you got a plan Adam?"
 "Well the first thing we will do.
 We'll buy a boat and start cruising the Pacific."
 "Where will we go first Adam?"

"The deepest part of the Pacific Ocean.
 is in the Mariana Trench.
 it is in the Western Pacific.

off the Southwest coast of Guam.
I guess that's as good a place as any to start."

By the end of the next day all was done.

"Alyssa,
a good night's sleep and we'll go sea monster hunting."
"I wonder where this thing came from and how big he is."
"Well when I talked to 5 o this morning.
They said they found the head of a great white,

that had drifted up on the beach.

They said it had been bitten in to.

They estimated that shark to weigh at least a ton. "

Before going to bed Alyssa called her mother.

She told her what was going on, also that she had left her a message on her computer.

Informing her what all she had done for the wedding.

She also called Lance,

and told him she had to be out of town for a while,
but would be back in plenty of time for the wedding.

Morning came and the twins got up and ate a good breakfast and put on the Alfa & Omega outfits.

Then they went to the boat and headed out to sea.

Two days passed,
they took turns sleeping while the other stood guard.

On the third day about ten A M, they both got the feeling of danger.

Slight at first but then it got very strong.

Then suddenly the boat went up in the air.

"Take flight." Said Alfa.

Just as they took off the boat flew up and hit Alfa, knocking him unconscious and he fell into the ocean.

Omega saw him fall and saw the beast going for him.

She used her eye beam and hit the beast right in the eye.

When she did it hesitated,

she levitated Alfa up to her and flew away.

She found a small island with trees on it.

She flew down to it and found a pool of fresh water.
She lay Alfa down next to the water,
Then splashed some water into his face.
He started to move a little,
she dipped some water with her hands and washed his face.
He opened his eyes and looked up at her,

he then sat up holding his head.
“Adam, that was too damn close.
How are we going to kill this thing?
I hit it with my eye beam right in his eye,
and it just slowed him down a little.”
“I don’t know Alyssa but we have to find a way.”

“It’s so hard to fight in the water,
If it was on land we would have a better chance.”
“Well I’ll be damned sis you did it again.”
“What did I do again?”
“This thing can’t go on land so he has to stay in the water.”
“So what’s your point?”

“If we can get him close to shore, we can both levitate him up on land.”
“That’s a great idea Adam.

Now how do we get it close to shore?”
We bate him.”
“What do we use for bate?”
“Me.”
“Oh no Adam, that damn thing almost got you a while ago, you’re not going to give him another chance.”

“I was knocked out before, I’ll be awake this time.”
“I still don’t like it Adam.”
“It’s the only way Alyssa, now let’s go see if we can find that thing again.”

They took flight out over the ocean to look for the beast.
They had been flying for about two hours when they came across a Japanese ocean liner.
They flew down and landed on the ship.
They ask the people if they had seen the beast.
No one had seen it, they gave the twins some food.

after eating they took flight and went looking for the beast.
They searched until dark then spent the night on an island.
The next morning after eating some fruit they took flight.

All morning they flew and into the afternoon.
About two o'clock they saw a boat that was upside down,
and two men were on top of it.
They didn't see the beast anywhere.
They were about thirty miles from land.

They lifted the two men off of the boat and took them to shore.
They told them they had been attacked by the beast,
five people were missing.
Their Father and Mother an Uncle and two sisters.

They had been hanging on the boat for about six hours.
They told them which way the beast had went .
Alfa & Omega went back to the boat, lifted it out of the water and sat it back down.

They got on the boat and started it moving,
in the direction that the beast had taken.
Since the boat was moving by levitation,
it was moving much faster than otherwise.

It wasn't long until they caught up with the beast.
The beast started after them,
they tried to lure it into shallow water near an Island.
It would have none of that.
It would only come after them in deep water.

After a while it just swam away from them.
 “He’s too smart for that.” Said Alfa.
 “Yes Alfa, and He’s headed right for Hawaii.”
 “Alright Sis, lets beat him there I have an idea.”
 They flew at top speed and went straight to Hawaii 5 o.
 They warned them that the beast was coming.
 Hawaii 5 o put out an alert and got everyone out of the water and all boats back to shore.

 Alfa said to the officer.
 “Sir I need an old boat,
 I need it packed with explosive that we can set off by remote.”
 “Yes, I see what you mean,
 I can have my explosive experts get that done for you,

may take about two hours.”
 “that will be fine sir, thank you.”
 “Yes, anything for Alfa & Omega in Hawaii.”
 The Twins flew out to see how far away the beast was.
 When they found him,

they figured it would take him about three hours,
 to make the trip.
 That is if he didn’t run into something,
 that would slow him down.

They hurried back to Hawaii to wait for him.
 After a good meal they went to 5 o, they were told how to set off the explosive by remote. Alfa gave Omega the remote,
 After placing some manikins around on the boat he took it and they started out to sea.
 They didn’t have to go very far until they ran into him.
 The long swim had made him hungry,

he headed straight for the boat.
 Adam stood on the deck so the beast could see him.
 It was only a few yards away when Adam took flight
 “Now Omega Now.” He cried.
 Omega pressed the button,

and the boat exploded into thousands of pieces.
 There was a fireball,
 the twins could feel the heat from two hundred yards.
 There was thick smoke where the boat had set.
 “Did we get him?” Asked Omega

“I don’t know, can’t see for the smoke.” replied Alfa
 “Alfa I don’t see him, maybe he sank to the bottom.”
 “Could be, here comes the navy, we’ll let them take care of it from here.”

They flew over and landed on the Navy ship.
 Everyone was cheering them.
 The Captain came down to talk to them.
 “Did you get him?” asked the Captain

“We don’t know, do you have sonar?
 Could you see him on the bottom?” Said Alfa
 “No we don’t but we will send for one.”
 “Alright said Alfa We’ll turn it all over to you,
 we have other things that needs our attention.”

“Thank you for your help said the captain, Good Bye.”
 As they took flight Omega said.” By By fellows.”
 They all went wild and started waving and whistling.
 “Shame on you Omega. Said Alfa,

when they were away from the ship.
 The way you carried on for them Sailors.”
 “O I suppose that a ship full of girls, would have found nothing but respect from Alfa”

“Of cores, I’m very professional you know.” Said Alfa
 “In a pigs eye.” Replied Omega
 As she dashed away toward the U S.
 While still over the water,
 she sent him a message in telepathy.

“Don’t forget you are giving me away,

so you better be at my wedding.”
He replied. “Don’t worry I will be there,
I have been trying to give you away for years.”

They found out later that the beast had been found under two hundred feet of water.
It’s head had been blown off by the explosion.

He was as big as a aircraft carrier and had come up from the bottom of the Mariana Trench.

Alfa returned to the hotel room.
He took off his Alfa outfit.
then took a shower and lay down for some well needed R and R.
He awoke ten hours later with a strange feeling in his stomach.
He had no idea what made him feel that way.
He was very hungry so he thought that may be it.
He got up and got dressed and went to find a menu.

After eating he got a drink and walked out on the patio.
His eyes gazed out over the ocean.
The feeling was still with him as before.
It wasn’t a hurting feeling at all.

It was like his guts were all tied in a knot.
Maybe the fight with the beast was just too much for him.
Or it could have been the lump on the head that he received when the boat hit him.
He watched the surf as it rolled in to shore.

I sure hope there isn’t any more of them things down there.
At that moment his cell phone rang.
“Hello” he answered.
“Adam, this is your mother.”
“Yes Mother I know your voice, what can I do for you?”
“You can put Alyssa on the phone, I can’t get through on hers.”
“Mother, Alyssa left here for home about twelve hours ago. Is she not home yet?”
“No she isn’t, can you contact her by telepathy?”

“Well Mother if I do and she doesn’t want to be contacted she will be mad as hell.”

“Do it Son”

Adam focus his mind on Alyssa’s thought waves, but there was nothing there.

In his mind he said

“Alyssa where are you? Please answer me.”

Nothing.

“Mother I can’t contact her, I don’t know why, Let me call you back.

“O K Adam you keep me informed.”

“I will Mother, Good-by”

“Good-By Son.”

Well he thought, now I know what this strange feeling is.

He tried several more times to contact Alyssa but could not.

Adam went back to his room and put on the Alfa outfit.

He put his cell phone in his belt and took flight.

He returned to where he and Omega had parted the day before.

He then took off in the direction that Omega had taken.

He flew kind of slow so not to miss anything.

He flew with his force field over him. He had always done that when he was alone.

For he remembered when he had been shot down once before.

He wondered if that could have happen to Alyssa.

No he didn’t want to think about anything like that.

If he saw a boat or an Island with people on it, he would stop and talk to them and ask them if they saw her.

As of yet no one could help him.

Finely he was over the mainland, he tried to contact her again but there was nothing.

He stopped at a hot dog stand and got two hot dogs to eat.

Alyssa loved hot dogs so he ask if they had saw Omega.

There reply was no.

He finished and was just about to take flight when he heard, Adam hell.

He could not pinpoint the true direction but he knew it came from out on the ocean somewhere.

Well at least he knew she was alive and she would contact him when she could.

And when that opportunity comes he will be ready.

Alfa got a hotel room in L A.

There he would wait for Omega to contact him.

Two days passed and there had been no contact.

“Where are you Alyssa? Why do you not contact me?”

Two A M the nest morning Adam awoke with the sound of Alyssa’s voice in his brain.

“Adam, do you hear me? Adam answer me.”

I hear you Alyssa, Where are you and are you alright?”

“I’m alright Adam, I don’t know where I am.”

“What do they want?”

“I don’t know yet. But Adam, they know who we are, they took off my mask, then they put two and two together and got you.”

“Well maybe they are holding you for ransom“

“I don’t know Adam.“

“Why don’t you just get up and walk out of there?”

“There are children here with me, they said they would kill them if I tried anything.”

“O K Alyssa try to find out what they want and where you are at.”

“I’m doing the best I can Adam.”

“I know Alyssa, but there is nothing I can do until I know where you are.”

It was almost dark when ,”Adam, I know what they want now.”

“What do they want?”

“They want whatever it is that makes us fly.”

“Did you tell them that there is no device?”

“Yes but they don’t believe me.”

“O K tell them that you have to contact me for that.

”Tell them that you always contact me by cell phone.”

One hour later Adam's cell phone rings.

"Hello Omega."

"Hello Alfa, I have someone that wants to talk to you."

"Put them on."

"Hi is this the famous Alfa that everyone talks about?"

"I am Alfa, Who are you?"

"Who I am doesn't matter, it's what I want that matters."

"What do you want?"

"I want the device that gives you your powers to fly, among other things."

"There is no device."

"Don't lie to me, if I do not get that device I will kill your sister."

"O K Mister you will get the device then you will turn my sister lose."

"Yes, she is of no use to me once I get that device."

"Agreed, I will be there in four hours with the device."

"How do you know where we are?"

"The cell phones acts as a guidance system between us."

Adam hung up the phone and said.

"Well I guess I better go get the device for him."

He found a toy store in town and went inside.

After autographing toy boxes for some kids and two young ladies Adam went looking for a device.

He settled on a square thin device with a clip on the back.

When you push a button it would light up and make a silly noise.

Adam bought five of them and left the store.

When he got out side he took them all out of the boxes, put the batteries in them, put one on his belt, the rest he put in his pocket and took flight.

When he got to the location he found a large yacht.

He knew that Alyssa was on that yacht.

He flew down and landed on the deck.

There was three men with guns came out from inside.

They took him around to a table where he saw a very large fat man eating a very large amount of food.

“Well you are the great Alfa I suppose. “said the fat man.

“I am Alfa, where is my sister?”

“I will ask the questions here, is that the device on your belt?”

“Do you want to fly big man? Then bring out my sister.”

The big man raised his hand and signaled to one of the men.

He went inside.

“May I remind you Alfa if you try anything, your sister is dead.”

“And I will tell you if my sister is harmed you will all die.”

“Idle threats, they mean nothing to me.”

At that time they brought Alyssa out the door and sat her at the table.

“Are you alright Omega?”

“I’m alright.”

“O K you see your sister is fine now let’s see the device.”

“O K big man who will be the first to fly? I have to program this to them.”

The fat man looked over at a little man with glasses and said.

“You first Larry.”

Larry turned a pale white and said

“Mime Boss I don’t want to fly.

“Get over here.” said the big man

The little man put down his gun and came over to Alfa.

Alfa put the device on his belt and pushed a button, then another, then another.

“Now, Said Alfa, this takes a lot of practice so don’t start out too fast.

When I tell you just think up and away. “

He stepped back and said “Now”

The little man shot up into the air, controlled by Alfa of Corse.

He went up about a mile and then came back down head first.

The little man was kicking and screaming.

He flew down just over their heads and then back up again. The next time the little man hit the water about a hundred yards out and never came up.

Adam said, “I told him it took a lot of practice, O K Who is next?”

The fat man looked over at the two men that were left.

They both shook their heads no and backed away.

Adam took the other toys out of his pocket and lay them on the table. Then he sat down at the table and picked up a chicken leg to eat. He said, "Well you have your device so I guess we will be going."

The big man said, "Not so Alfa, Your sister here will be sold in Shang high to the top bidder. You NY friend will join Larry at the bottom of the ocean. "

"You know fat man I am awful tired of pussyfooting with you."
Alfa took the guns from the two men and threw them into the water. Then he sent the two men up into the sky about two miles and turned them lose.
They hit the water and were not seen again.
The fat man said, "I don't understand, they had no device on. "
Adam Replied, "Understand this fat man, this is a toy we need no device for what we do. "
They took the yacht to Hawaii and turned it and the fat man over to Hawaii 5o.

Then they both flew home together.
