Now another adventure of Alpha and Omega as they use their powers in service of their country.
As in this one they take on Iran to save some political prisoners from sure death.

CHAPTER ONE
HELLO MISTER PRESIDENT

Two years passed and things had went smooth for the fourteen year old twins.
Just a little crime prevention in the city.

It was Saturday afternoon.
The twins were in the study reading as they usually did on Saturday.
Then suddenly they looked at each other.
Alyssa said” do you hear what I hear?”

“yes, who is it?” Said Adam.
“I don’t know, let’s go find out.”
Telapathicly Alyssa said,” Mother where are you?”
“ “I’m in the den.”
They went to the den and sat down.

Heaven said,” What’s the matter?”
Adam said,” We are about to have important company.”
Heaven said,” Who is it?”
Adam said, “ The President of the united States.”
“ The President, what does he want here?” asked Heaven
“Well I think we are about to find that out.” Said Alyssa.
Just then the butler came to the door of the den and said “Madam, The President wishes to speak to you .”

Heaven said.” Please show him in.”
The president walked into the den and they all stood up to greet him.
The President said,” Please, this is your home please sit down.”

Heaven pointed to a chair and said” Please sit down Mister President.
what can we do for you?”
“ There have been two attempts on my life in the last month.
I need a place to stay for a few days.
They think there is someone around me that is giving them information.
They seame to know all about what I do and where I go.”

“ Until we find out who it is and stop this plot my life is in danger.”

Adam spoke up and said, “ Mister President are them men outside with the secret service?”

“ Yes they are son, why do you ask?”

“ May I go talk to them? I want to be an agent someday.”

“Sure son you go ahead.”

Heaven smiled at Adam and said “ Now Adam don’t you get in their way.”

She knew what he had in mind.

“ I won’t mother.” Said Adam.

When he went outside there were two men standing at the door.

He went on out and looked down the driveway.

There were two cars in front of the president’s limo and two more behind it.

Standing up and down the drive were about ten other men.

Adam turned back and ask the two men at the door if they were secret agents.

They told him that they were in the secret service to protect the President.

Adam read their thoughts as they were talking. There was nothing unusual to find.

He moved down the drive looking at the President’s limo.

He was just acting like a curious young boy.

Stopping to talk to each one of the men.

Finely he walked up to one that was standing by one of the cars.

Adam said, “ I’m going to be a secret agent someday.”

The man said, “ Are you really,”

As he spoke Adam red his thoughts and heard him say, “

You little brat you can have my job after this weekend is over.

After this dog of a President is dead.

Adam said, “ Can I see your badge, can I ?”

The man took out his wallet and showed him his badge.

On the badge was the number 1442.

Looking at the badge Adam just said, “ Golly that’s neat.”

The man said, “ Now get out of here and let me do my job.”

Then in his mind he said, “

Once we get rid of this President and The Vice President takes over as President.

we will take over this rotten country and the rest of the world will follow.”

Adam turned around and went back into the house.

When he got back into the den where Alyssa Heaven and The President was.

he told Heaven he knew who was trying to kill the President.

Heaven told the President," Mister President I have something to say to you but it is for your ears only."

" What is it Man?"

I know you have heard of Captain Zodiac and Alpha and Omega."

" Ha if I hadn't I would be living in a cave for the past few years."

" Well Sir Captain Zodiac was my husband and the twins here are his children. They are also Alpha and Omega."

"That's hard to believe can you prove that to me." Said the President.

Adam said," I think I would like an apple."

At that time an apple razed out of a dish on a table and floated over to Adam.

Then Alyssa said," Hold on to your chair Mr. President."

Then she lifted the chair about a foot off the floor and took him around the room and sat him back on the floor.

" Well I'll be," said the President.

Adam said," Well do you believe us now?"

" Yes I believe you."

" Good" said Adam " Now I have something to tell you."

"What is it."

" When I was outside I was checking out your men and reading their thoughts."

"You can read someone's mind."

" Yes right now you are thinking that I am not telling you the truth, but I am."

"Well I'll be, I believe you and all you say, so what do you have to tell me?"

"There is a plot to kill you and your Vice President is in on it."

"The man with the badge number 1442 is also in on it.

" When and where will they try it?"

I heard him say this weekend I don't know where yet."

"When will you know that?"

" I need you to a sine him and another to keep watch on us children so I can read his thoughts more."

" Yes I will take care of that, and I thought the Vice President was my friend."

"They want to take over this country and then the world."

" Yes he has talked about one world leader but I didn't know that he wanted to be that one."

Adam said, " Alyssa and I will go upstairs and act like we are doing homework and you send the two men up to protect us."

" I'll do that." Said the President.

Adam and Alyssa went up to their study room and sat down at a table.

When the two men came in the twins were hard at work.

One of the men was just thinking about his family.

The other one said, " now I'm a baby sitter, this is not what I joined the service for."

" Once we take over I may just take over this place for myself."

The man looked at his watch and said, " Just two days and one hour to go and it will all be over."

When he heard this he focused his mind on the President and asked. " What happens in two days and one hour?"

A voice returned to him saying. " I am throwing out the first ball at the Yankees baseball game at that time."

"That is where they will try it." " Well I can cancel that."

"No you go ahead and do it, Alpha and Omega will be there also."

The President said to Heaven, " I sure hope they know what they are doing."

Heaven said " you can count on them Mister President."

After the twins returned to the den where the President and Heaven was they all put their plan together.

Adam would sit next to the President and Alyssa as Omega would keep watch for any attackers.

Two days later they were all ready to go to the ball game.

It was all over the news that the President would sit in the crowd and throw out the first ball.

They arrived at the stadium just before the game was to start.

Adam had on a wig and glasses to despise himself.

He sat next to the President and Omega was hid on the top of one the booths high in the stadium.

The announcer introduced the President.

He stood up and waved at the crowd, as he did a shot rang out but the bullet bounced off of the force field that Alpha had placed around himself and the President.

At that time Omega caught sight of a weapon and a man lying on another booth across the stadium.

A beam of blue light came from her right eye and hit the barrel of the rifle and melted it. The man dropped the rifle and started to run for the ladder going down the side of the booth.

She used her levitation to lift the man up in the air and bring him down to the field where the secret service took him away.
The crowd was cheering Yaaaa Omega, we love you.

Then She flew all around the stadium and checked to see if she could see any more men on the booths.
The secret service then took Adam and the President out of the stadium and put them in the limo and went back to Adam's house.
Omega flew home and was waiting for them there.
The President got out of the limo and told the mane secret service agent to arrest the man with badge 1442.

After the secret service interrogated the two men they told them everything they wanted to know.
They rounded up over two hundred men Nationwide and also the Vice President and arrested all of them.

The President stayed one more night and went back to Washington DC the next morning.

All the media was talking about how Omega had saved the president's life.

Adam said," Well I like that, they didn't say a word about me."
Alyssa said," Silly boy, they didn't know you were there."

That same year it was late September.
Alyssa had gone to spend a weekend with friend who was having a birthday party.
Adam was bored at home without Alyssa even though they were always in contact with each other.
Adam decided to become Alpha and take a flight.

He had no idea where he was headed he just wanted to see the sights.
He was flying along when he came upon a large building that was all lit up with different lights.
He saw a lot of people going in and they were all dressed in funny costumes.
Inside the building There was a band and loud music coming from it.

He landed in a spot where there were no people and started walking toward the building.

A crowd of people came by and he just joined in with them and walked into the building.

People were dressed as witches and monsters and he even saw three more that were dressed as him.

He thought, "Hay I've come across a Halloween party.

Everyone was dancing and moving real crazy.

He thought it was kind of silly but yet he seemed to enjoy it some.

Then he heard someone say, "Hello Alpha."

He turned to see who it was and it nearly took his breath away.

next to him was the most lovely eyes he had ever seen. She was dressed as Omega mask and all but he could still see enough to know that she was very lovely.

" Hello Omega." He said.

She said" That is a real nice outfit you have on but you don't look much like Alpha."

" Is that right, have you ever met Alpha?"

" No but I have a scrapbook all about him, he is so wonderful don't you think."

" Yes I am in agreement with you."

" Will you dance with me?" She asked.

He said," I'd love to. "

Holding her in his arms was wonderful, she was so soft and smelled so good to him.

As they danced he asked," Do you really have a scrapbook of me? Uh I mean of Alpha."

She said," Yes I just love him so much."

Alpha said, It's real hot in here would you like to get some air?"

" Yes that would be nice."

They got a drink and walked outside.

Alpha asked," What is your name?"

" My name is Briana."

" That is a lovely name, my name is Adam."

" Hello Adam."

" Hello Briana."

Another song started and Alpha asked her.

" Would you like to dance again?"

" I'd love to she said," as she melted into his arms.

After the dance he took her over and sat her down at a table.

How old are you?" he asked
" I'll be seventeen in a few days."
" You are a very beautiful girl."
" Thank you." She replied
" So you are a fan of the one they call Alpha. "
" Yes, he is so cool."
"What would you do if you could meet him in person."
" I would tell him what a cool person he is and that I am his fan. "

"What would you say if he offered to take you flying with him." " I would tell him I would love to fly with him."
" Would you like to go flying with me."
" What?"
" I am Alpha."
" I don't believe you are the real Alpha."
Alpha said " Come on lets walk."
He took her hand and they started walking around the building. When they got to a place where no one could see them he levitated them about a foot off of the sidewalk.
She looked down and saw that her feet were not touching the ground.
Then she said," You are Alpha."
Would you like to fly." He asked.
" Oh yes please, that would wonderful."
Then all of a sudden they were in flight.
Alpha put his force field around them to keep her from getting cold.
They flew low for a while then he took her very high.
He could see the smile on her face and knew she was enjoying it.
They flew for about one hour then he returned her to the party site.

When they landed she said." That was even more exciting than I thought it would be."
Just then they heard someone say. " Hay Greanna baby where you been and who is this little creep.
Briana said," Better watch it Larry this is the real Alpha."
Larry said." Sure he is and I'm Jack the ripper."
Larry was very big, he looked like a linebacker.
He walked up to Alpha and said," I don't like anyone messing with my girl."
" Larry I am not your girl now go away.
" Not until I teach this little creep a lesson."
He started to reach for Alpha, that was as far as he got.
Alpha caused him to open his hand and smack his own face three times.

Then he levitated him into the air and dropped him into a fountain in front of the building.

Alpha looked at Briana and said. " that should cool him off a little."

They both had a good laugh.

Alpha said, " Well I must be going now, I have had a wonderful time."

Briana said, Yes, so have I, thank you so much.

" Well good bye. He said

Briana said," Good bye,"

He flew up into the sky and headed towards home.

Alpha was just flying along thinking about Brianna and how beautiful she was.

All of a sudden all just went blank and he fell to earth.

Alyssa was standing talking to some of the girls at the party.

Suddenly a cold chill came over her and she knew that something was wrong.

She had lost all contact with Adam.

His signal was nowhere to be found.

She told her friend that she had to leave the party.

It was about forty miles from there to home and she didn't want to wait till her mother sent a car for her.

It was a formal party and she was in her evening gown.

She went outside and saw that she was alone and took flight. Thirty minutes later she landed in her back yard. She was very cold but otherwise she was fine.

She went in and up to her room and changed into her Omega outfit.

In her mind she said," Mother are you home?"

" Yes dear I'm home how is the party?"

"I'm not at the party I'm in my room can you come here."

A short time later her mother entered the room.

What's the matter honey why are you home and in that outfit."

"Mother where is Adam?"

" I don't know dear can't you contact him."

"No I can't his signal has stopped and he doesn't answer me."

"Has that ever happen before?"

" No it hasn't and I am afraid something has happen to him."

"What will you do?"

"I don't know what to do but I want to be ready to go in case he needs me."

Morning came to a hay field in Ohio.

About half way up one of the hay stacks was a figure of a young man.

There was no movement.

As the farmer drove his tractor through to start baling the hay, he spotted something on the side of the haystack.

He climbed the haystack to find a young boy in a costume.

He turned him over, his head was bleeding but still alive.

He took off the mask and threw it aside.

Then he made his way down the haystack with the boy.

He carried him to his tractor and took him to his house.

He took him inside and yelled for his wife.

When she came into the room and saw the boy, she asked.” Where did you get him and what happen to him.

The farmer said,” he was laying on one of the haystacks and I don’t know what happen to him.

His wife said,” Put him to bed and I will call the doctor.

After the doctor examined him he told the farmer.” He has a concussion and I can’t be sure but it looks like he’s been shot, He is in a coma but I think he will come out of it before long.”

Three days went by, he moved slightly then opened his eyes.

He looked all around but did not know where he was.

For that matter he didn’t even know who he was.

There was a tube in his arm and he only had his under shorts on.

He tried to remember something but there was nothing before he woke up.

Then a lady came into the room, when she saw that he was awake, she said,”

Well it’s about time you woke up.”

Adam said,” Where am I and who are you?”

My Husband and I own this farm. He found you on a haystack and you were hurt so we brought you in and called the doctor. He said you had a concussion. So how do you feel?”

“ I feel ok but can’t remember anything, not even who I am.”

Well you just rest and maybe it will all come back to you.”

She then turned and left the room.

After two days Adam begin to see flashes in his mind of someone flying.

He awoke one night to the sound of someone saying “ Adam where are you?” He had no idea who it was.

One morning he wanted to get out of bed.
He saw some clothes laying in a chair across the room.
In his mind he said,” I sure wish I had my clothes.” The clothes flew across the room and landed on the bed.
He thought “ How did I do that?”

Putting on his clothes he saw the big A on the front of his shirt. He thought, I wonder if that stands for Adam.”

Meanwhile back at the mansion Alyssa is talking to her mother.
“ Mother I know that he is alive but I can’t get him to answer me.”
Then she turned and went up to her room.
She went to the window and with all the thought power in her mind she said,” Adam will you please answer me?”

It shot through Adam’s head like a storm.
He grabbed his head and said in his mind. “Who are you?”
“ I am your sister and I love you very much so please tell me where you are.”
Adam said.” How are we communicating like this?”
Adam we have always communicated like this, we have special powers.”
“ Now tell me where you are so I can help you.”
“ You stay with me and I will find out where I am.”

“ Adam I’m always with you.”
Adam went into the other room where the farmer’s wife was.
He Asked.” Mam where am I?”
“You are in my home.”
“ No how can I tell someone how to find me.”
She told him that they were in Ohio and gave him her address.

Adam gave Alyssa the information.
She told her mother she had found Adam.
Her mother said,” Where is he?”
“ He is in Ohio and he can’t remember so he must have been hurt.
anyway I am going after him and bring him home.”

She changed into her Omega outfit and flew out the window and headed for Ohio.

It was midafternoon when Omega spotted Adam sitting under a tree in the farmer's yard.

She landed next to him and said. "Adam are you OK, what has happen to you?"

Adam said," Are you my sister?"

" Yes, don't you remember me?"

" No I don't remember anything."

At that time the farmer pulled up and got off of his tractor.

he walked up to them and said.

" I have seen you on the news, You're Omega."

" Yes, and this is my brother Alpha and we thank you for all your help."

" You are very welcome but come in and eat before you leave.

They all went in and sat down at the table.

The farmer said grace and they started eating.

The farmer said," Well honey it looks like I'm beaten, there's just no way I can get all that hay in the barn tonight." "Omega spoke up, can't you hire some help."

"There is none to hire, the farm next door is a big commercial farm and they want my farm so they hired everyone around here .

" Will the rain hurt the hay?"

"Yes it will rot in the field if it gets wet."

" where do you put it to keep it dry."

" In the barn loft."

They ate in silence the rest of the meal.

By the time they finished eating it was fully dark.

It had gotten cloudy and it was a very dark night.

Omega told the farmer to come with her to the barn.

When they got inside the barn she levitated them both to the loft.

" Is this where you want the hay?" she said

Yes, this is where it goes but I don't understand.

We owe you a dept. and we always pay our depts..

She opened the door to the loft and stood beside it.

She closed her eyes and in a few minutes the bales of hay started floating in through the door.

As it came in it was placed in a neat stack.

It took her about an hour to finish and when she did the loft was full of hay bales.

The farmer said," That is the most amazing thing that I have ever seen, all that they say about you two is true."

They left the barn and went back into the house where the farmer told his wife all about what she had done.

The farmer's wife said

“ That is fantastic, we owe you so much.”

Omega said,” You owe us nothing, we are even for you taking care of my brother.”

The farmer said,” I sure hope your brother gets his memory back soon.

“ Thank you, I'm sure he will, well we have to be going now, we have a long trip ahead of us.”

They all went outside and Omega took Adams hand.

They said good bye to the farmer and his wife then she took flight taking Adam with her.

They arrived home about three in the morning.

She helped Adam to bed then went to her mother's room and woke her up and told her that Adam was home.

Heaven said, “ Is he alright.”

He is OK but he can't remember anything.”

Then she went to her room and went to bed.

Adam woke up about noon, he sat up in his bed and looked around the room.

He said,” I've been here before.”

Adam got up and went into the bathroom and took a shower.

It seemed that he knew where everything was.

He came out and got dressed then left the room and went down stairs to the den.

As he walked into the den and saw Heaven and Alyssa sitting there, He said,”

Hello Mother, Hello Alyssa.

They both smiled at him and Alyssa said,”

Is your memory back Adam?”

Adam levitated the couch that they were sitting on about three feet then let it down.

He laughed and said,” It's back and I'm starving, what's for dinner?”

They all laughed and went to the dining room together.

The winter months went well for the family.

There wasn't much flying, it was just too cold.

Heaven's mother and Father had moved back to Denver the year before.

It was April and the rainy season was in full swing.

Heaven and the twins had went to Denver to visit Heaven's mother and father.

They were watching TV when a news bulletin came on.

One of the large dams in Colorado had a crack from all the water pressure.

If it breaks it will flood a whole city.

They were trying to get all the people out of the city.

Adam said, "We had better check that dam out to see if we can help.

They changed into their outfits and became Alpha & Omega.

It didn't take them long to get to the dam in question.

Part of the top had broken off and there was a crack right down the middle.

It looked like it was going to collapse at any time.

Alpha landed on one side of the river and Omega landed on the other. They focus all their power on the dam and was holding it back.

Omega said, "Alpha I can hold it here for a while, you go down the canyon a way and try to find a place to block it off."

"Are you sure you can hold it by yourself?"

"Well we have to try something we can't hold this forever."

"You are right about that but let me know if you need me please."

"Yes, I will now go on."

Alpha flew downstream for about two miles, there he found a part of the gorge that was only about one hundred feet across.

On one side it had a very high peak.

He started breaking it off and dropping it in the gorge.

Not far away he found a lot of large boulders about ten tons each.

He levitated them to the gorge and put them in front of the place he had blocked off.

There were news helicopters all over the place reporting what they were doing.

Omega said, "Alpha I can't hold this much longer, I need your help."

Alpha said, "OK I'm on my way."

Alpha returned and also put pressure on the broken dam.

He said, "OK now we can let it start to break up so the water doesn't come out all at once.

As the dam started to crumble they let it fall to the floor of the canyon.

Soon the water was at the blockade that Alpha had made. It was holding fine.

When the water had leveled off they flew down and kept watch on the work that Alpha had done.

When they were satisfied that it was going to hold they left and flew back to Denver to rejoin the others.

At their return Heaven told Alyssa that Alpha and Omega had a phone call while they were gone.

Alyssa said, "Who would call us for Alpha and Omega?"

Heaven said, "Only the Secret Service."

"What did they want?" asked Adam

He said his name was Bradley and he would be here to talk to you tomorrow morning."

Alyssa said, "Well it must be something big if he's coming all the way out here."

They slept well and got up early to eat and await the man from the secret Service.

Their wait was short, he arrived about eight AM.

A car pulled into the drive, a short slim man with glasses got out of the car.

He walked like he wasn't too sure he was at the right place.

He rang the doorbell and Heaven open the door. The man said, "My name is Agent Bradley, I called you yesterday."

Heaven said, "Yes please come in."

The man stepped inside and showed Heaven his badge.

"The President of the United States Of America has sent me here to talk to Alpha and Omega." Said Bradley

Heaven said, "Come into the living room."

"Thank you."

They entered the living room where Adam and Alyssa was sitting.

Heaven said, "This is Mister Bradley and sir these are my children, Adam and Alyssa or Alpha and Omega."

Bradley said, "Why they are just children."

Heaven replied, "Yes but did you not see them at work at the dam yesterday?"

"Yes I did , it's amazing what you two can do."

Adam said, "And sir what can we do for you."

"Nothing for me but for your Government."

"What can we do for our Government?"

“ Three days ago two of our agents were captured in Iran.”

“ They are being held in a compound with around two hundred other political prisoners.”

Adam ask,” Why don’t you just take the army in there and get them all out?”

“Because when we got there no one would be alive to save.”

“Besides we are only interested in the two agents.”

Alyssa said,” You mean you want us to leave all those other people there to suffer .”

“ That’s right, they are of no importance to us.”

“ These two men has information in their head that is vital to America.”

“ How will we know them?”

“ We will give you all the information on them the rest is up to you.”

“Adam said,” OK we will do it.”

For the next three days they were given all the information that was available, then it was time to go.

Bradley said,” there is a plane waiting to take you to an air base in Iraq,from there you will be on your own.”

“ If you are captured the U.S will have no knowledge of you being there. “

Adam said, We understand.”

They arrived in Iraq in midafternoon.

They were briefed on the plan that was put together by the military.

All the prisoners were kept in a compound that was seconded by four guard towers and a barbed wire fence.

The building was a wood frame two story building.

The man in charge told them “if you can make it back to the border we will back you up. However we cannot come into Iran. For the life of me I don’t know why they send a couple of kids to do a job like this.”

Alyssa said,” Sir we are more than just a couple of kids, We are “Alpha and Omega.”

“ Yes we have heard about you two over here but other than that we don’t know much about you.”

Adam said,” We will leave right after dark.”

When it became time to go they held hands and took flight under the protection of Alpha’s force field which he could maintain indefinitely.

They crossed the border and made their way to the compound where the prisoners were kept.

The building the prisoners were in was sat on block post about every ten feet. That was so they could see under the building.

It was now one a m.

Alpha devised their plan and decided to strike at three a m.

They was well hidden and needed to rest before the trip back to Irack.

Three A M came quickly and it was time to move

Adam said OK it's Showtime. They got into position and made their move. Alyssa took out the four guard towers with her eye ray. Adam crushed the other buildings to the ground. Alyssa set fire to the trucks in the motor pool. The gas tanker exploded. Any human they saw they took him out.

It lasted about twenty minutes.

They opened the door to the building the prisoners were in and ask if all the prisoners were here. Their reply was a yes.

They told them all to lie on the floor and not move until they were told.

At that time Alpha and Omega lifted the building and headed for Iraq.

Three araianan jets caught up with them but Omega made short work of them.

They crossed the border and made the flight to the Airbase.

They sat the building down and let all the prisoners out.

The officer they had talked to before came out to greet them.

He said." We saw it all by satellite. I have never seen anything like it. I know now why the President sent you two, you are an army by yourself."

They returned home with all the people they had rescued and was given a hero's welcome.

And now the world knows about Alpha and Omega.

The End
