CHAPTER ONE
A NEW ADVENTURE

Adam sat on the beach looking at all the lovely girls as they walked by.

He leaned back in his lawn chair, smiled and thought to himself.

This is fantastic, I'm a single man with all the money that I will ever need and just look at all the lovely girls to choose from.

So why would I ever want to get married.

Alyssa has been married for two years now and has a baby boy.

She said she was happy but she sure isn't any fun anymore.

The last real fun we had together was when we fought the sea monster.

That has been over two years now.

It has been so long since we had any action that the people have all forgotten about Alfa & Omega.

Just then his thoughts were broken up when he heard his name.

"Hi Adam, How are you?"

Adam looked up to see two girls looking at him and smiling.

They were twins; he had met them the night before last at a club.

They looked just alike and were a vision of loveliness.

Adam sat up straight and said, "Hello girls, I'm fine and how are you two today?"

"Oh we are fine said one of the girls. We were hoping to see you again."

Adam said, "Let's see now, I seem to remember the name Mandy."

Both girls said, "Yes".

Adam said, "Which one is Mandy?"

Together they both said, "We both are."

Adam said, "That's very interesting.

Mandy said," You see we do everything together so there is no need for more than one name."

Adam said "what if I wanted to take one of you out on a date?"

Mandy said," You would have to take us both.

Adam said, "That's very interesting."

After a couple of drinks and some conversation the girls said good bye and left.

Adam sat there for a while trying to decide what a date with the twins might be like.

Many thoughts raced through his mind.

Just as he had made up his mind to give them a call, his phone rang.

He answered.

"Hello Mother, How are you doing on your tour of Europe?"

"I'm doing just fine Adam; everything is so wonderful over here."

"Did you get to see the Queen while you were in England?"

"Why yes Adam thank you for asking. We have a good long chat together. I had no idea that we had so much in common."

"That's great Mother, I'm glad you are having such a good time."

"By the way Adam, Are you still in Hawaii?"

"Yes mother, you know how much I like it here."

"Well, I know how much you like the beach and the pretty girls."

"When are you going to get married like your sister and give me more grandchildren?"

"Ha, not for a long time yet I hope."

"Good by Adam, I love you."

"Good by Mother, I love you too."

Adam sat back in his chair and looked out across the water.

"Life is boring. He said, "What I need is another sea monster to fight. I wonder if there are any more of them down there."

He got up and started back to the hotel.

"Think I'll go take a nap."

Adam sat in the hot tub looking across at the twins.

He held out his arms for them to come to him.

They started moving across the tub to him.

Just as they got to him he heard a loud noise.

"What was that noise?"

Then he heard it again.

Adam opened his eyes and razed his head from the pillow to answer the phone.

"Wow, what a dream, this had better be good." Then he picked up the phone.

"Hello."

"Hello Brother dear." Said Alyssa

"Well Sis How are you? And how is married life and motherhood?"

"Everything is wonderful, you should try it."

"I'm sorry Alyssa but I don't think I could handle Motherhood very well."

They both laughed.

"Don't you miss the old days Alyssa?"

"Sometimes I do Adam but I love my Husband and my baby."

"I know Alyssa but I wish we had just one last villain to fight."

"Oh Well all good things must come to an end, but you can come and see your nephew you know."

I promise I'll be over there within a month, is that o k?"

"O K Adam I will hold you to your promise, good by Adam."

"Good by Sis."

CHAPTER TWO
A CALL TO ARMS

Adam sat up and turned the T B on.
It was the evening news.

“Professor Do they know how big this thing is?”
“The best guess is about five times the size of earth.”
“And you say it’s headed straight for us, when will it get here?”
“I would say in about three months’ time.”

“Is there any way we can destroy it or change its direction?”
“I’m afraid not.”
“Then you are saying that we only have three months to get our house in order.”
“Yes, something like that.”
“Thank you Professor.”

“There you have it folks, a run a way planet is headed right for us and will be here in about three months.”
So I guess if there is any hope it will be up to the military.
I’m told that the joint Chiefs are going to meet the day after tomorrow.”

CHAPTER TWO
BACK IN ACTION

Adam turned off the T V.
He then went and took a shower and got dressed.
He had dawned his Alfa outfit.
He was going to see Alyssa and he didn't want to wait on an airplane.

He was going to get in to that meeting with the Joint Chief.
He wanted to see what they were going to do to get rid of that planet.

After he got over the mainland he called the President's private number.
A voice came over the line.
" This is the office of the President, state your bigness please."

" This Is Alfa, I wish to talk to the President."
" Just a moment please."
" Hello Alfa, This is the President."
"Hello Mister President, , how are you sir?"
Alfa, I'm doing just fine.
How are you?
It's been a long time since I have talked to you.
what can I do for you?"

" I'm doing well also Sir.
I want you to get me into that meeting with the Joint Chief's the day after tomorrow."

" I'll take care of that as soon as I hang up.
you can count on that.
Will there be anything else?"
"No Sir that will be plenty, thank you so much."
"Anything for you and Omega, take care now."
"Yes sir thanks again, good bye."

CHAPTER THREE
A SUPER LOVE FOR A SUPER HERO

A Few hours later would find him over New York City.
He would spend the night at the New York Apartment and get in touch with Alyssa in the morning.
He landed on the balcony.
With a thought He opened the French doors and went inside.

He closed the doors and without turning on any lights, went into the master bedroom.
He removed his Alfa Outfit and hung it in the closet.
He then walked to the bed, razed the cover and lay down in the bed, pulling the covers over him.

Just as he was about to go to sleep he felt a body turn over next to him and an arm came over his face.
The body was naked and seamed very well built.

He threw the covers off and jumped out of bed.

The girl in the bed started to scream.
At the first sound of her scream Adam stopped her with a wave of his hand.

Adam got a robe from the closet and put it on.
Then He turned on the lights.

Adam said, "Who the hell are you?
The girl said, "GET OUT, This is my friend's apartment."
"This is my, apartment." Said Adam

" How did you get in here I had the door locked?"
I told you, It's my apartment, I have a key."

Alyssa told me this was her apartment." The girl started to cry.
Adam said, "Well why didn't you say you were a friend of Alyssa's."
" she look at Adam, "Do you know Alyssa?"
"Yes, She's my sister, this is a family apartment.

I'm sorry but I haven't talked to Alyssa to let her know I was coming to New York."
At this time Adam took his first real look at the girl.
She had no makeup on but she didn't need it,
Her loveliness was amazing; he had never seen anyone so lovely.

Adam laughed a little and said.

My name is Adam Mehru, Alyssa and I are twins."
The girl smiled and Adam lost his heart.

"My name is Angel Blue," She said
" It would have to be Angel. However I have never heard of anyone named Blue." Said Adam

Angel replied," Well there are people named White, Black, Brown, Green and Gray, so why not Blue."
"Well you got me there." Said Adam.

Angel looked around and said,
" If you will leave the room I will get dressed and go somewhere and get out of your way."
" Oh no, said Adam You are not in my way, your just stay where you are, I'm sure I can find a place to sleep, after all we have five other bedrooms"

Adam went out of the room closing the door.
He then went to the nest bedroom and went to bed.
He didn't get any sleep that night; all he could think about was Angel.

The next morning Adam was sitting on the couch.
Angel came out of the bedroom with her suitcase.
"Where are you going?" asked Adam

“ To a hotel.” She replied

“ I won’t hear of it said Adam, Alyssa would have a fit.

“Well it wouldn’t be right us staying here together.”

She said.

“ Nonsense, Said Adam It’s a very large apartment and it’s very little that I will be here.”

“ Well I don’t know, Are you sure it will be alright?”

“ Of cores, said Adam But since all my clothes are in the master bedroom I will let you take a guest room.”

She told him that would be fine with her.

He took her and showed her a guest room.

Then he went to the master bedroom, took a shower and got dressed.

CHAPTER FOUR
A DATE WITH AN ANGEL

At that time Mrs. Bates came in the door.

Mrs. Bates did it all, she was the cook, cleaning lady and all around nice lady and had been with them for years.

She looked at Adam and then at Angel and said.

Hello Adam I didn't know you were in New York, Who is your Friend?"

Adam said, " I got in last night, this is Angel, She is a friend of Alyssa's. She will be staying in the blue guest room."

Mrs. Bates fixed them both something to eat and started cleaning the apartment.

After eating Adam said in his mind, Alyssa can you hear me?

" Hello Adam I thought as Adam and Alyssa we were to use the phone."

" Hi Sis, that seems so slow, just wanted to let you know that I am at the Apartment and will be over to see you shortly."

" You are at the Apartment, have you met?"

Adam cut her off. Yes I did, I met a very lovely Angel. And just when I was starting to believe there was no such thing."

" O K Adam but just remember that Angel is a very good friend of mine and I don't want her hurt."

" Sis, How could I hurt anything so wonderful?"

" I know you Adam, you are a hit and run artist."

" Well it may just be different this time."

" What's this Adam? I feel that you are telling the truth. The most eligible bachelor in the world may have met his match."

“ Anyway Sis, enough of this, I need to talk to you in person.”

“ What’s up Adam?”

“ We can talk about it when I get there.

Have you been watching the news about the runaway planet?

“ Yes Adam I saw that but what can we do about that?”

“ We may be the only ones that can do something about it. Any way I will be over after a while and we can talk about it. “

O K Adam, see you in a little while.”

“By Sis.””

“By Adam.”

Adam went in to where Angel was sitting on the couch.

He said, Angel I want you to feel at home here, so anything you want or need you just let Mrs. Bates know. I have to leave now and will be gone most of the day.

But I was wondering if you would consider going to dinner with me tonight?”

“ O K Adam I except but I want you to know that I have been warned about you.”

“ Oh you have, by my sister no doubt, she thinks I’m a wolf.”

Angel laughed, Should I believe her?”

“ Are you kidding? All girls think their brothers are wolfs. But down deep I’m really a pretty nice fellow.”

Well I must go now, I’ll see you around seven, is that alright?”

“ That will be fine Adam.”

Adam got up and went into the master bedroom.

He got a briefcase from the closet and put one of his Alfa outfits in it.

Then he left the apartment.

He arrived at Alyssa’s apartment a short time later.

He knocked on the door, when she opened it he handed her a box of candy and flowers that he had stopped and bought on the way.
He had also had a very large arrangement sent to Angel at his apartment.

“ Alyssa said, “ Flowers for me, you have changed Adam.”
He replied, “ Hay Alyssa, you’re my favorite sister.”
She said, “Smarty, I’m your only sister.”

He then handed her a large stuffed animal . “ For My Nephew.” He Said
She took Adam into the baby’s room and let him look at him.
He was asleep so they left the room.

Adam said, “ Does he have the power?”
“ Not yet said Alyssa, and I hope he never does, I want him to have a normal life.”
Adam said, “ Who is to say what is normal, we done alright in life.”

Alyssa There is a planet five times larger than earth.
It’s headed on a crash cores with us.
It will be here in about three months.
We have to try to stop it or turn it.”
Alyssa said, “ Adam I can’t, I promised Lance I would not use my powers anymore.”

“ Alyssa I have always thought as Dad did that we are here for a reason.
Dad found his reason and maybe this is ours.
“ Yes Adam, Dad found his reason and it killed him.”
“ Yes Sis but he saved the world for us.
Do we not owe your son the same?”
“ And if we lose our lives and save the world then it’s worth it.

I have a plan to change the cores of that thing. It will be a one shot try but I must have your help.”
“ I’m sorry Adam but I can’t brake a promise to my Husband.”
Adam lowered his eyes to the floor,
“ Well Alyssa With or without you I am going to take on this job, if I fail the world will be doomed.”

“What are you going to do?” she asked.
The Joint Chiefs are going to meet tomorrow, I am going to be at that meeting to see what they have in mind.
I will tell them my plan and see what they think about it.”

“ Tell me your plan.” Said Alyssa
“ Are you coming with me?”
“ I will talk to Lance.”
“ You have a choice Alyssa, you can help me and you may enjoy a long life with your Husband and baby.
Or you can sit here and if I fail then you will still have three months with them. “

“ Alyssa said, O K Adam what do you want me to do?”
“ I want you to come to that meeting with me tomorrow.”
“ Alright, I will tell Lance tonight and call you first thing in the morning. Does that suit you?”

“Yes it does, Now tell me more about Angel, I have a dinner date with her tonight.”
“ You will never win her Adam, she has already lost her heart.”
“ Oh, Who am I in competition with?”
Alyssa grinned and said, “Alfa.”
“ Well that’s easy, I’ll just tell her who I am, after all you told Lance didn’t you?”
“ Yes I did but not until after we fought the sea monster and we were almost ready to get married.
“ Well I’ll do the same thing.”

“ Adam don’t you see, Lance was not in love with Omega, he was in love with Alyssa Mehru.”

“ Well what does it matter, I’ll always be Adam Mehru

And I’ll always be Alfa. “

Alyssa Laughed, “ Have it your way Adam, I wish you the best of luck. I just don’t want to see either of you get hurt.”

Adam stayed with Alyssa for a few hours and played with Lance Jr.
Adam would levitate him and fly him around the room.

It was during one of these flights that Lance walked in the door.
When he saw what Adam was doing he told him to put him down.
Adam flew the baby over to Alyssa.

Lance said, " My son is normal, he does not fly, therefore you will never levitate him again.

Do you understand what I am saying.

Adam looked at Lance and then at Alyssa and said, Normal.

Then he told them good bye and left the apartment.

The Mehru Family also had a large hotel in New York City.

Adam went in to the desk and got the key and took the elevator to the Penthouse.

He went inside and locked the door.

Leaving orders at the desk that he was not to be disturbed.

He then put on his Alfa outfit and stepped out on the balcony and flew away.

He went to the New York Observatory.

He wanted to get a look at that planet.

There was a lot of people there .

They all wanted his autograph and were asking if he was going to try to stop that planet.

He would just say, " I'm going to do what I can."

At this time it was only the size of a golf ball.

Adam flew around for a while.

He had a lot of thinking to do.

Whatever he was going to do he had to do it soon.

He would know more tomorrow after that meeting with the Joint Chief's.

But right now he had to get back and get ready for a date with an Angel.

He flew back to the hotel and changed his clothes.

Then called the desk and ordered a cab and left the penthouse.

As soon as Adam left Alyssa picked up the phone and called the Apartment.

" Hello." Came the voice of Mrs. Bates.

" Mrs. Bates, this is Alyssa, is Angel still there??"

" Oh yes Mum just a moment."

Then, " Hello Alyssa." Said Angel.
" Hello Angel how are you doing?"
" Just fine, you have a lovely apartment here."

"I heard that you met my brother."
" Yes, he seems very nice."
" He told me he was taking you to dinner tonight."
"That's right."

" I will make you an appointment at Carla's to have your hair done, that's right down stairs.

My bedroom at the apartment is the green room.
Ask Mrs. Bates to show you witch one.

You can use any evening gown in my closet.
Also there is a jewelry box on my dresser ware what you like from it."
" Thank you very much Alyssa."

" Did Adam say where he was taking you?"
" Well He said something about Club Santo's."
" Wow, that is top notch, he must have flipped out over you."
" Well I know you will have a good time, so call me tomorrow and tell me all about it."

CHAPTER FIVE
TOGETHER AGAIN

Well to make a long story short, the night went off without a hitch.

The only thing was that Angel had never drank sham pain before.

So by the time they got back to the apartment Adam had to carry her from the cab to the apartment.

He took her in and lay her on her bed and took off her shoes.
He bent down and kissed her softly on the lips and told her goodnight.

the next morning, Alyssa contacted Adam telepathically.

“ Hello Brother dear how was your night?”

“ Hi Sis, it was fantastic, but she can't handle her sham pane.”

“ Did she get drunk?”

“ Wow did she.”

“ I hope you were a gentleman.”

“ Alyssa I won't even comment on that.

Are you going with me this morning?”

“ Yes Adam I'm going, although Lance isn't talking to me.”

Don't worry about it Sis he'll come around.

Let's see it's six A M.

Meet me at the Penthouse at eight o clock.

We will leave there as Alfa and Omega.

We have to be in Washington D C by nine thirty, the meeting starts at ten.”

“ O K Adam I'll be there.”

“Good By Sis.”

“ Good By Adam.”

Adam got up and told Mrs. Bates to fix him something to eat.
then he went to take a shower and get dressed.

By the time Alyssa got to the penthouse Adam was already there and in his Alfa outfit.
After Alyssa became Omega they flew to Washington D C.

There they went to the pentagon where the Joint Chiefs were to meet.
First there was a private meeting between the Joint Chief's the president and Alfa and Omega.
Then Leaders and Scientist from around the world were invited in to the meeting.

It seemed that no one could agree on any idea that would change the direction of the planet.
Then Alfa stood up and took the mike.
" O K you all know Omega and I.
We are here to do something about this run a way planet.
Since none of you can agree on any one thing Let me tell you what We want.

We have thirty days to change the course of this planet. After that it must be destroyed, and that isn't likely.
We want Booster rockets, the largest ever built.
We want as many as can be made in the time we have.
I would say about three weeks.

Make them to be benighted by the flip of a switch.
As soon as they are ready Omega and I will take them to the planet and set them up."

Someone spoke up, " How many do you think you will need Alfa?"
" I would like to have a thousand but will take all I can get under that amount."
" We will do our best Alfa, do you need anything else?"

" Yes we need the Mars transport ship."
A man spoke "Are you crazy? That ship will not carry enough fuel to reach that planet.
Even if it did it would take two years to get there."

Omega said, " Do you not know who you are talking to? We will only use that ship for life support. To make it move we will use our own power."

" What about the booster rockets?" said the man.

Alfa said, " They will be banded together and we will tow them along."

The man said, " I don't believe anyone can do what you are saying you can do."

At that time the President walked into the room.

He said, "Shut your mouth and Liston, these two people are the only chance we have for survival.

If They can't turn that planet then there is no hope for us.

As for me, I have all the confidence in the world in them."

Adam said, " O K let's get started on them boosters right away.

You Scientist get your calculations ready for us so we can hit that planet.

We will be in touch, but if you need us you can tell the President and he will contact us."

CHAPTER SIX
SUPER HERO VERSES MORTAL

It was just getting dark when our heroes got back to New York City.
They went to the penthouse and changed clothes.
They said goodnight and parted.
Alyssa went to her apartment and Adam went back to the family apartment.

When Adam opened the door he saw Angel sitting on the couch.
She was watching the news on television.
He asked her, "What are you watching?"
She said, " I'm watching the News Channel.

They had Alfa on there a while ago.
I have just got to meet him some day."
"Why?" said Adam
"Why, said Angel, Because He is the most wonderful man in the world, He's a super Hero."

Adam said, " Would you want to marry a man like that??"
She said, " Oh wouldn't that be wonderful, he could take me flying any time I wanted."

Adam said," What if he's already married?
He could be you know."
" I never thought of that" Said Angel.

Adam stood up and stretched.
Then he said," Well it's getting late and I have a long day tomorrow.
If you will watch out the balcony you may see Alfa flying around the city."

" Really."

When Adam left the room she was sitting on the balcony.
He went to his bedroom and put on a Alfa outfit that he always kept in his closet.
He then interred a secret shaft that led from his bedroom to the roof.

After he left the building he flew around it slowly to attract Angel's attention.
As he went by he heard her call his name.
"ALFA, OH ALFA."
He looked her way then flew over to where she was .

He said," Yes Mam can I help you?"
She said," Oh Alfa I have wanted to meet you for so long, my name is Angel Blue."
He said," Well Angie I'm not surprised that you want to meet me, I am quite remarkable you know."

She said," My name is Angel."
He said," Whatever."

She was a little stunned by that remark.
She said,"

You are a super Hero and so wonderful."
" That's very true Alice, said he,
She said, " My name is Angel Blue."
" Oh yes, He said, never heard of anyone with a last name of blue."
She asked him, Are you married?"
" Married, Heavens no. Said He. I don't have the time.

This Super hero stuff is a full time job.
It's not like I clock out and go home in the evening you know."

They talked for another half hour, Then Alfa said .
" Something is up I have to go now. It's been nice talking to you Annie."
Then he flew away.
She said," My name is Angel." But he was gone and did not hear her.

Angel sat there for a few minutes then got up and walked back into the Apartment

She thought," He sure is a strange one. A lot different from what I thought he would be."

At that time Adam came out of the bedroom in his bathrobe.
He walked to the kitchen for a glass of cold water.

When he saw Angel he asked her," Well did you get to see your super hero?"
She said," Yes I did, he came over and talked to me."
" Oh, That must have been nice for you."
" she said," It was alright." Then she sat down on the couch.

Adam went over and sat down next to her.
He said," Would you like to talk about it?"
She turned her head away from and said,
" He was not anything like I expected him to be."

" What do you mean?"
" He is conceded and struck on his self, I don't think he heard a word I said that wasn't about him.
He never did get my name right.
He kept calling me Angie and Annie.
When I would say my name is Angel, he would just say, Whatever."

Adam said, Well maybe he was just having a bad night.
maybe next time he will do a little better."
" NO, said Angel," I don't ever want to talk to him again."
Adam said," Hay by the way, didn't Alyssa tell me that you wanted to get into show business?"
Angel said," Yes why?"
Adam said," Saturday night there is a play opening on Broadway.

After that there will be a big party.
Everybody in show biz will be there.
I would like for you to go with me."
Angel said," Let me think about it."
Adam replied," Oh yes Alyssa and Lance will be going also.
Then he stood up and started out of the room.

Then he stopped and turned around and said,
" Here's something else you can think about. Every since that first night in the bedroom where we first met.
As soon as I turned on the lights and looked into those lovely eyes of yours.
Every since then I have been in love with you.
When I close my eyes I see you.
you are all that I think about.
Angel, I love you and I want to marry you, now think about that." Then he left the room and went to the bedroom.

Angel sat there on the couch.
She was in a daze, she didn't know what to say.
Even if she did he was already out of the room.
Just then the phone rang.

Angel looked at the caller I D on the T V screen, it was Alyssa.
She picked up the phone and said, " Hi Alyssa,"
" Angel, What's the matter? You sound like you lost your best friend."
" Well Alyssa I may even do that before this is over."

" Tell me about it Angel."
" Well to start with I was sitting on the balcony and Alfa flew by.
I called his name and he came over to talk to me."
" Alyssa said," That's great so why are you down in the dump?"

Angel Answered," The man is a conceded jerk and I hope he never comes back."
Alyssa said," Did Adam know you were sitting on the balcony?"
" Yes he did, Why?"
" Oh No reason I was just wondering."

Angel said," That's not all, Adam is in love with me and wants to marry me."
" Alyssa said," Did he tell you that?"
Angel answered," Yes he did"
" What did you tell him?"

“ Nothing, He left the room before I could even reply.”

“ What are you going to tell him?”

“ I don’t know Alyssa, We just met.

I am fond of him but I don’t know if I love him or not.

The last thing I want to do is to hurt him.”

“ I understand Angel.

Why don’t you tell him that you need time to get to know him a little better.”

My Brother is a fine man and you may find that there is more than just a pot of gold at the end of that rainbow.”

“ What do you mean Alyssa, I’m not after his money.”

“ I know that Angel, but Adam has a lot more to offer than just money.

Well I must go now Lance is calling me to bed.”

“Goodnight Alyssa.”

Goodnight Angel.”

The next morning Adam told Mrs. Bates to fix him and Angel some breakfast.

Then he went and knocked on Angel’s bedroom door.

When she came to the door he told her that Mrs. Bates was fixing breakfast for them.

She started to tell him no but he stopped her.

He said,” Angel please come and eat with me, I need to talk to you.”

She said,” O K Adam I’ll be there in a moment.”

They ate without talking and when they were done Adam warmed up their coffee.

Mrs. Bates had gone to clean the bedrooms and they were alone.

Adam said,” Angel I am sorry that I caused you so much grief last night.

It was not my intention to. I just couldn’t hold it in any longer.” “

“ I’m sorry Adam, I just don’t understand how you could fall in love with me so fast.”

“ Adam said,” I have known women the world over but never met anyone like you.”

She looked Adam in the eyes and said,” Can’t we slow down a little and get to know each other better?”

Adam smiled and said,” I guess I did come on pretty fast didn’t I?”

“ Yes you did.”

CHAPTER SEVEN
ADAM TELLS A SECRET

For the next three weeks when he was not involved with the space program as Alfa he was doing something with Angel.

Then one day they told Alfa and Omega that if they were going to turn that planet they would have to leave in two days.
They had seven hundred and fifty rockets done.

Adam told Alyssa, "Tonight I am going to tell Angel who I am."
Alyssa said, "I know that Adam, It's been on your mind all day."
"What do you think about it?"
"It doesn't matter what I think, you already have your mind made up."

That night Adam and Angel was sitting on the balcony.
Adam pointed at the sky and said.
"Can you see it there, it's about the size of a baseball?"
She said, "Yes I see it, is that the run a way planet?"
"Yes it is."

Now honey I have to tell you something."
"What is it Adam."
He said, Maybe it would be better if I show you.
You set right here and I will be back in a moment."
"O K Adam."

Adam got up and went into the Apartment.
He went to his bedroom and put on his Alfa outfit.
He then came back to the doors that led to the balcony.
He hesitated for a moment then walked out on the balcony and set down next to her.

She looked at him and smiled.
Then she said, Are you going to a costume party? Do I get to go as Omega?"
He said," This is not a costume, Honey I am Alfa."

" I don't believe you."
He stood up and took flight.
He flew around in front of her then he came back and landed on the balcony.
" Now do you believe me?"
" Yes, she said, Now I believe you."
He then took her hand and took flight taking her with him.
It was a cool night but in his force field she couldn't even feel the wind.
They flew for about two hours.
When they returned to the Apartment Alfa noticed that Angel was asleep.
He levitated her on into the bedroom and lay her on the bed

He picked up her hand and put an engagement ring that was second to none on her finger.

The next morning Alfa and Omega flew to Florida.
That's where the rocket boosters and the space ship were banded together and ready for takeoff.

They went into the ship and joined their minds together and lifted the ship and rockets up into the air.
They went about one hundred feet.
Then lowered it back to the ground.

When they came out of the space ship one of the Generals ask him how it felt.
Alfa just said," A piece of cake, We'll see you tomorrow." "
Then they flew away and went back to New York City.

When he interred the Apartment Angel was there to greet him.
Adam walked into the living room and Angel walked over to him.
Adam looked at her hand and she was still wearing the ring.
He took her into his arms and kissed her.
Then he said," I love you Angel."
She said," I love you to Adam."

Adam said," Does that mean you will keep the ring and you will marry me?"

She said," Yes Adam, if you still want me I will marry you."
Adam said," Alright you can tell Alyssa and all in your family and I will contact my mother and tell her to come home.

Then as soon as Alyssa and I return you Alyssa and my mother can plan the wedding.
Angel looks up at him and said," Return, return from where Adam? Where are you going?

" Oh, Alyssa and I have to go and turn that planet away from earth."

" Adam why do you have to do it?

Why don't they just send something up there to blow it up.

" It's too big for that Honey it has to be turned away."

Just then the phone rang and Adam answered it.

" Hello Mother, when did you get home?"

" I just arrived, I wanted to see my children before they went flying off into space."

" Well Mother I see you have been talking to my sister."

" Well what's new?"

" Well since you are home you can send the limo after me.
I have someone that I want you to meet."

" O K Adam I will send it right away."

Adam contacted Alyssa Telepathically.

" " Alyssa have you talked to mother since she got home?"

" No Adam but we will be going out later."

" O K we will see you there."

" We, What's going on?"

" Can't tell you Sis, She wants to tell you herself."

The limo came and they arrived at the mansion about an hour later.

Angel was shocked when she saw the mansion.

She said," My God Adam I had no idea ."

Adam said," Honey my Father was the richest man in the world.

He was the only Trillion air there was."

Now that all falls on our family

When they entered the mansion Adam told the maid to get his Mother.
They went into the den and were served drinks.
Shortly after Heaven came into the room.
They stood up to greet her.
She said, "Adam how are you?" then she hugged him.
"I am fine Mother, I have someone I want you to meet."
He took Angel by the hand and said, "Mother This is Angel Blue."

Soon to be Angel Mehru

Right away Heaven started making plans for the wedding.
Adam said, "Hold it Mother, You have to wait for Angel's parents to get out here. You must let them have a hand in it you know."
Heaven looked at Angel and said, "Of course you are right, honey I just got carried away."

So it was decided that Angel would send for her parents and they would all stay there until Adam and Alyssa returned.
As far as everyone was concerned.
They were in Europe taking care of some family business.

CHAPTER EIGHT
WHERE NO SUPER HERO HAS BEEN BEFORE

The next morning they were up early and ready to go
They all said their good bye's and they were off to Florida as Alfa and Omega. .

They arrived in Florida at the Cape around ten A M.
They were due to take off at one P M.
The whole thing would take about a week if successful.

Every Television Network in the world was there for the takeoff.
Alfa and Omega got into the rocket ship.
At one P M it left the ground under the power of Alfa and Omega.

Higher and higher it went.
It picked up speed as it climbed.
Then finely it was out of sight and Alfa and Omega was in space.

Once they got their calculations set it was time to head for the planet.
After they were in space there was no strain on them to operate the ship.
Although they still took turns so they could rest the mind.
Alfa had spread his force field out over the whole ship to protect them from meteorites.
Omega had a special lens in her helmet to fire her laser beam through.
With it and being in space it made her laser ten times stronger.

Pictures were taken of the planet and sent back to earth.
It was not spinning but was just moving through space.
It was decided where to place the rocket boosters.

Alyssa used her eyebeam to dig out a hole in the planet.
Then Alfa would place a rocket booster in the hole.
When all the booster rockets had been placed on the planet.
At a certain time Alfa would fire all the booster rockets at the same time.
Hopefully that would turn the planet and set it on a new cores away from our solar system.

Finely it was done, it had taken six days to finish.
There was not much time to spare.
They were told to get as far away from as possible.
They decided to follow it on a cores for earth.
The moment came and Alfa fired all of the rocket boosters at the same time.

They held their cores there was no change.
“ Earth, this is Alfa, there is no change.
Do you read me Earth?”
“ We read you Alfa, Are you sure?”
Yes I am sure it hasn't changed chorus.”
“ You did your best.”

Omega said,” What are we going to do now Alfa?”
“ Well Omega we have two months to live so I guess we better hurry back.”
Then Omega said,” Alfa the planet has moved to the right.”
What do you mean Omega?”

“ When the rockets went off we were following that planet at dead center.
Now we are way over to the left.
“Earth this is Alfa, Can you tell if this thing has changed chorus?”
“ We were just talking about that Alfa, it sure as hell looks like it.

But I don't know if it will be enough or not.
If it hits any planet in our solar system then we are still in danger.”
“ We are going to keep an eye on it.”” Said Omega
At that moment something streaked across the the Heavens and hit that planet broadside.
The planet turned to the right at about sixty degrees and parted from them.

The coast was clear to go home.

“Alfa this is earth base, what the hell was that?”

“I don’t know, said Alfa, An Asteroid or a comet one, but it did the trick.”

Omega said, “I guess that is just God’s way of saying that he is still in control.”

“You could be right Omega, Now you two come on home and have a safe trip.

When they landed they got a hero’s welcome. Then they flew back to New York to the apartment. They ordered the limo to pick them up. They showered and changed clothes and headed for the mansion.

Plans were already made for the wedding.

It was surprising how well Angel’s mother and Heaven got along.

Angel said to Alyssa, “I haven’t been able to decide on anything.”

Alyssa said, “I know just what you mean I went through the same thing, but it all turned out well.

And I think yours will also.”

And well it did, It was the greatest thing since the prince got married.

So now both of our heroes are married and settled down.

So will there be any more adventures for them?
