Tommy Dean was a twenty eight year old frail little man of five feet three inches and weighed one hundred twenty five pounds.
His thick glasses made him look even more timid than he was.
It seemed that everyone wanted to make fun of him or pick on him.
The only person in the world that treated him with respect was Linda Rockwell, a very pretty young lady of twenty two years old.
Tommy worked as a clerk in the office of a large food chain.
Linda worked in packing.
They both got off at the same time and they would walk home together. Linda lived about six blocks from work and Tommy lived about ten blocks away from her.
Tommy was very fond of Linda.
He thought he may even be in love with her.
He wanted to ask her out but he just couldn't get up the nerve.
He knew that she was just being friendly with him.
He spent most of his time off going to gift shops and junk stores.
He loved to look at things that people disregard.
He had been to the mall a lot and each time he would see a sign that read, The Treasures of the mystic arts.
On this day he decided to go in and have a look around.
The whole place was full of weird items.
He looked all around and was just about to leave when his eye caught a ring hanging on a post.
He took it down and looked at it.
It looked like it was made of gold and had a juled lightning bolt on it.
He tried the ring on his finger and was surprised to see that it fit just fine.
After viewing it on his finger for a while he decided to put it back where he got it.
The ring wouldn't come off of his finger.

No matter what he did or how hard he pulled on it, it didn't budge.
He walked to the desk where a little old man with a long white beard was sitting.
"How much is this ring?" he asked
The little old man looked at the ring and said.
"Three hundred dollars."
Tommy said," I don't want it but it won't come off."
"Three hundred dollars. Said the old man.
Tommy repeated," I can't get it off."
The old man looked at him and smiled and opened his desk drawer and took out a large knife.
Tommy said," Wait now I was only kidding, I'll write you a check."

The old man smiled and sat back down in his chair and returned the knife to his desk drawer.

Tommy paid for the ring and left the shop. He thought, "That was a lot of money for that ring but he had no choice."

He decided to walk home.

He had to pass Linda's house on the way and he walked real slow hoping that she would come out and talk to him.

However his hopes vanished as he got past her house and she never came out.

He walked on to his house and went inside and sat down to watch some television.

Another weekend and he would be sitting here at home as always.

He held up his hand to look at the ring that he had just bought.

He noticed that it had a speck of dirt on it.

He went to rub it off with his other hand.

As he did the ring began to glow then streaks of Malta colored light came out of it and surrounded him

When it stopped he knew that he had changed but he didn't know how.

He held up his hand to look at it.

He saw that his hand was much bigger than before but the ring still fit.

He stood up he felt very strong, he went to the mirror to look at himself and he couldn't believe his eyes.

He was at least six feet four inches handsome and very well built.

Then he saw that his clothes had also changed.

He now had on a black jumpsuit and on the chest was a gold lightning bolt like the one that was on the ring.

He also had a cape that hanged down his back to his knees.

He didn't know what had happened to him but he knew he had been transformed into some kind of super being.

He went to his desk and got a straight pin and tried to stick his hand with it.

He did not feel a thing and the straight pin just bent and did not go into his hand.

He knew it must be the ring that did this to him.

He held up his hand with the ring on it and rubbed the ring.

The Malta colored rings surrounded him again and he was transformed back into himself again.

He sat down in his recliner and closed his eyes.

He thought, "I am going to have to think about all this. I have no idea who that man that takes me over is or what he is.

I must try to learn more about him." After a while he was sound asleep.

In his sleep he heard, "Tommy, I am not from your world, I am from a planet over one hundred light years from earth. I have been here for many hundreds of years but the ring was lost at sea and was just discovered recently. In my world I am called Aldron.

Translated in your language that is Aladdin.

I have chosen you to be my earthly body. If you wear the ring willingly I will give you the power to do amazing things to help mankind. I am here to serve you and do your bidding. You can call on me at will and I will come.

All you need do is rub the ring when you need me but do not let anyone know about the ring or see you transform.

The person you become when you rub the ring is called The Guardian.

When you are transformed nothing can hurt you and you can perform many Super feats. Use the ring well my friend it is now your place to help mankind.”

Tommy awoke and looked around then looked at his hand and saw the ring. It wasn't a dream, it really happened, he would be a super hero at will.

He would be The Guardian.

Tommy looked at his watch, it was 11.05 P M.

He thought, “ I think I will take a drive and see what's happening in this city.”

Something in his mind said,” Why don't you fly?”

“ You mean I can fly.”

“Yes, you are a super hero you can do just about anything you want to do.”

Tommy held up his hand and rubbed the ring.

The Malta colored rings surrounded him and he transformed into The Guardian.

He went out the back door into the back yard.

He looked

All round and saw no one.

He then bent his knees and sprang upward.

To his amazement he was flying.

The longer he flew the better he got at it.

He was also amazed to know that he knew where he was at all times.

He flew very high to get a good look at the world that he lived in.

Then he came back down again and flew over the city.

He saw a car being chased by a police car

At a high rate of speed.

He thought I might as well help that officer.

He flew down and grabbed the back bumper and razed it up and lifted the back wheels off of the pavement and stopped the car.

The police pulled up and arrested the men in the car.

They ask him who he was and he told them,” I am called The Guardian.” Then he flew away.

For the next three hours he helped the police with different things and then he flew back home.

The next morning he got up and eat and started to read the newspaper when the phone rang.

He answered it,” Hello.”

“ Hello Tommy.” It was Linda.

“ Linda what a pleasant surprise, How are you?”

“I’m fine Tommy, did you hear about the Super man that helped the police last night? He can fly and everything.”

“ No I didn’t hear about it but it must be some kind of gimmick or something, nobody can fly.”

“ No it’s true the police got a video of him stopping a speeding car with his bair hands.”

“Well that is strange Linda, I’ll have to check it out.”

“Well it’s all over the T V this morning, well you take care and I’ll see you later.

“ O K Linda, By now.”

“ By Tommy,”

After hanging up the phone Tommy turned on the T V set, there he was flying down and stopping the car for the police.

He said,” Well I guess I made a hit, at least Linda seams excited about it all.”

Nightfall came and The Guardian was flying around over the city.

He had just stopped a hostage situation and was checking out the city.

He passed a tall apartment building.

There on a ledge was a young lady.

She was not very pretty and looked like she had had a hard time in life.

He landed on the ledge about ten feet away from her.

“ Hi there,” he said.

She turned her head and looked at him.

“ Hi where did you come from?”

“ I just dropped in to see if I could help,”

“There’s nothing anyone can do to help me,”

“ Nothing is that bad,”

“ You wouldn’t know,” she said

“ Maybe I would, you see I have this friend, He is a skinny little man real timid and shy you know the type. He hardly has any friends and everyone likes to pick on him and tease him.”

“ What does he do?”

“Well he takes life as it is and he treats people like he would like to be treated.”

“ Does he ever feel like ending it all?”

“Well I guess maybe he does sometimes but we all feel that way sometimes only we have to overcome it all and live life as it is given to us.”

““ Life has given me nothing but a hard time.”

Honey even I have my bad days when nothing seams to go right.”

“I came out here to jump but I think maybe I’ll give it another go.”

The Guardian smiled and said.” That’s great, say how would you like to fly around the city before you go back in??”

“ Can you fly?” she asked

“ I sure can and if you want I will take you for a flight around the city.”

“ That would be great.”

He went over to her and took her around the waist and took flight.

They flew all around the city for at least an hour then he brought her back and put her through the window.

Before he left he said, "Life is precious honey please don't throw it away."

"I won't," she said.

He left her and went on his way.

He flew around the city for a while and decided that there wasn't much going on so he headed home.

It was five thirty in the morning.

His flight took him right over Linda's house.

He looked down and saw Linda sitting on her back patio drinking coffee.

He could not resist, he flew down and landed in her yard close to her patio.

It startled her and she jumped.

He said, "I'm sorry if I startled you."

She said, "That's O K."

"I was just passing by and I saw you sitting here so I stopped to say hello."

"That was nice of you."

"It's a beautiful morning isn't it."

"Yes it is, Who are you? I have seen you on the news the last two days. Where do you come from?" I am called the Guardian and I am from a long way off. But I have come here to help mankind. What is your name?" "My name is Linda. How do you do all the things that you do?"

"There are many things in the universe that man does not understand."

"Well I think it's wonderful that you are here to help humanity. It must be wonderful to be able to fly."

Would you like to fly with me?"

"I don't even know you, maybe some other time."

"Do you belong to anyone?"

"No I am single but I do have a boyfriend.

"Oh he must be some kind of fellow.

"He is the sweetest little man that I ever met and I am crazy about him but I don't know how he feels about me.

Where did you meet him?"

"He works with me and he walks me home every day."

It was all he could do to keep from jumping up in the air and shouting I love you Linda.

He said, "Well I must be going, good by."

She said "Good by it was real nice meeting you."

He took flight and disappeared across the sky. When he landed in his back yard and rubbed the ring and went inside his house.

He sat down in his recliner and said, "I can't believe it, she loves me."

Tommy picked up the phone and dialed Linda's number.

She answered, "Hello."

"Hello Linda this is Tommy."

"Hi Tommy what can I do for you."

"I was just wondering if you had plans for tomorrow."

“Tomorrow, why no Tommy I don’t have anything plan.
Would you like to go for a ride in the country?”

That would be nice, I would love to.”

“ O K how about ten A M?”

“ That will be fine see you tomorrow.

“Yes good by Linda,”

“ Good by Tommy.”

The next morning was Sunday, no super hero today this is my day with Linda.
He showered and got dressed and ready to go. He went and backed the car out of the garage and let the top down It was a five year old Chevy convertible, his pride and joy.
He went back into the house and called Linda.

It was nine thirty,

When she answered he ask her if she was ready to go. She said yes and he told her he was on his way.

He pulled up in her drive and got out of the car. Linda came out of the house carrying a basket. He took the basket and put it in the trunk.

They got in the car and were on their way.

They took back roads to see the countryside.

By one o’clock they were at Niagara Falls.

They stopped to look at the falls and decided to eat their lunch she had brought with them.

They had just finished lunch when they heard people screaming. Those poor children will be killed.

They looked and saw a boat load of teens in a small boat heading for the falls.

The motor had died on the boat and they were headed for the falls.

Oh my God said Linda. Tommy turned and ran around behind one of the buildings and rubbed the ring and became The Guardian.

He then flew around and came up the river to the falls.

He caught the boat just as it was going over the falls.

He then flew the boat over to a parking lot and sat them down.

He then flew away as fast as he could and in a private place rubbed the ring and became Tommy again.

When he found Linda she ask him “ where did you go?”

“ I went to call 911” he said

“ Didn’t you see him?”

“ See who?”

“ The Guardian, he saved those kids from going over the falls.”

“ No I didn’t see him, I was on the phone. “

Linda said,” I wonder what he was doing up here?” “ I wonder,” said Tommy.

Well it’s lucky for them kids that he was,” Said Linda.”

They packed up the pick nick basket and left.

They drove around some more and then went back home. When they got to Linda’s house he walked her to the door and told her he had a wonderful time.

She said yes I had a great time.
He leaned forward and kissed her.
She smiled.
He said, "I'll see you in the morning."
She said, "O K Tommy."
He turned got into his car and went home.

Things were pretty slow all week.
It was Thursday night and he had settled down to watch the T V.
He was getting ready to watch a movie when a special report came on.
There was a large meteor on a cores for earth. The meteor was the size of the superdome.
If it hit the earth it could cause total distruction. It would hit sometimes Monday night.
Tommy said "Maybe The Guardian should take a look at this thing."
He rubbed the ring and became The Guardian then he headed for deep space to intercept the meatier.
He looked the thing over and said, "I can't smash it that would leave hundreds of pieces the size of automobiles to hit earth.
This thing should be ice but it's solid rock.
He left there and came back to earth and went to Nasa.
He talked to the scientist and ask them if it would be safe to send it into the sun.
He said I can change it's cores but we don't know what it will come in contact with somewhere else.
They told them it would be o k to send it into the sun.
They also told him when would be the best time to do it. That would be Sunday at two thirty a m.
He said o k it will be done.
At two thirty a m Sunday morning he was standing on the meatier
He then got into position and begain to push it to change it's cores.
It easily missed the earth and was on a cores for the sun.
He rode it part of the way to make sure it was on cores. It was.
He then left the meatier and watched it as it hit the Sun.
A job well done he thought and headed back to earth and home.

He turned the T V to watch the news. They were telling about him turning the meteor into the sun.
Before they finished the news man said, " Guardian if you are watching me now, The President of the United States wants to see and talk to you.
He thought , "I wonder what the President wants with me."
He decided the only way to find that out was to go and see him.

When he went to work on Monday he told them he would take a sick day on Tuesday.
He told Linda that it was just a Doctors appointment.
He got up early Tuesday morning and made the transformation and took flight to Washington D C.
He got to Washington D C about eight A M.
He circled the white house about three times then landed at the front entrance.

The guard at the front door said “ who who are you and what do you want.”

He said “ I am the Guardian and I have come to see the President.”

“ Do you have a appointment?”

“ The President sent word that he wanted to see me.”

The Guard made a phone call and said “ Sir you will have to wait just a moment.”

In a little while a sergeant and two other guards came to him and said,” Sir will you come with me please.”

He followed them to a room and they interred the room.

They told him ,” wait right here.”

As they went out the door and closed it he could hear it lock.

He thought,” Now what is going on here?”

He sat down at the table and waited for thirty minutes and no one came.

“ He said well I have waited long enough.”

He tried the knob and it was locked. He gave the door a kick and it flew open.

There were two guards outside the door.

They pointed their guns at him and said “ stop where you are.”

He said” What is going on here? I came to see the President, Has anyone told him that I am here?”

The guard said “ You get back in that room or we will have to shoot you.”

He grabbed the guns out of their hands and bent the barrils into a U shape then handed them back and walked away.

He used his X-ray vision to find the president and walked up to the oval office and went in.

The lady at the desk looked up and said, “Guardian I’m so glad to meet you, did you have any trouble getting in?”

He answered “ No everyone has been great.”

She went to the other door and went in, then she came out and said,” The President will see you now.”

He walked into the President’s office.

There were some other men there with him.

The President got up and walked around his desk and held out his hand.

“ Guardian, I an so glad to meet you.”

“ And I you Sir the honor is mine.”

He was introduced to the other men and ask to sit down.

“ What can I do for you sir?” He asked

“ I have a mission for you if you will take it.” Said the President.

“What do you want me to do? But you must know that I am here to help humanity and I can not kill.”

The president said,” Who are you? and where did you come from? and why are you here?”

“I am the Guardian, I come from a planet two hundred light years away and I am here to help humanity survive.”

“ How long have you been here?”

“ Hundreds of years.”

Why are we just now seeing you?”

“Because I am needed more now than ever before.”

“ That is hard to believe.”

“What is your mission that you want me for?”

“ Iran is developing a nuclear bomb they are almost finished with it, I want you to destroy it and all of their sights so they won't have a nuke.”

I don't know if I should get into your wars or not.”

“ If we have to do it it will mean a lot of people on both sides will die, you may be able to do it without killing anyone.”

“ I see what you mean.”

“Either way Guardian it has to be done for they will use a nuke on Israel.”

O K Mister President I will take this mission but I will do it my own way.”

“ That's fine but you only have ten days and we will have to do it the hard way, we can't let them finish that nuke.”

“ Sir I understand and it will be done.”

He got up and shook hands and walked out of the office and out of the white house and flew away.

When he got home he called his work and told them he had to take the rest of the week off that he had plenty of sick time built up.

Then he called Linda and told her that he would be away for a few days and he would call her on his return.

The next morning he started his flight to Iran.

Flying at super speed it didn't take him long to get there.

He flew around over the country and found all of the underground sights.

All went well he just got shot at a few times.

He then flew back to the city and found the office of the Iranian leader.

He landed on a balcony and open the door and walked in.

There was three men in the office with guns and they began to shoot him but the bullets just bounced off.

The leader told them to stop firing.

Then the leader asked,” What do you want here?”

He said “ I am here to help you get rid of your nukes.”

The leader said,“ Sir what are you talking about?” we have no nukes.”

He told the leader where all of his sights were at.

Then he said,” Now you will get rid of them or I will, and I don't like to kill any one but will if I have to.

“ American dog nothing can penetrate then sights, we made sure of that.”

“Sir will you get rid of your nukes?”

“ No never.”

Guardian said, “I will return later.”

He walked to the balcony and flew away.

He went to one of the sights and used his heat vision and it crumbled the cement and melted the sand The sight was totally destroyed. He then flew back to the leaders office.

He asked him, "Now will you abandon your nuke sights so I can destroy them without killing any one?"

"I will abandon them."

"I will start destroying them first thing in the morning, you will bring nothing out of them but the people."

"Your wish is my command."

The next morning he destroyed all the sights and came back to America.

He went to the president's office and walked in.

He said, "I wish to see the President."

"Yes sir I'll let him know you are here."

"You can go in now sir."

He went into the President's office.

"Well Guardian you did a real fine job, we owe you a dept of thanks."

"I'm not through yet Mr. President."

"What do you have to do now?"

I want all the leaders of countries that have nukes to come to the U N in New York for a meeting."

"What do you have in mind?"

"I am going to rid this earth of nukes. I will tell them to get rid of them or I will."

"They won't do it Guardian."

"They will do it or I will destroy them myself and that also means America."

What gives you the right to do that?"

"I am The Guardian, I am taking that right, It is only a matter of time until someone pushes that button and you know it."

"They will never listen to you about this."

"You just set up that meeting, you have one week."

He then turned and walked out of the office and the White House and flew away.

The Guardian went and got a P O box and a Cell phone so he could be reached by certain people.

He called the White House and told the secretary to give his number to the president.

On the third day the President called him and told him that a meeting was scheduled for the next Thursday morning with all but Pakistan.

He said that they said they would not give up their nuclear weapons for anyone.

He took flight and went to Pakistan.

After flying around the country and finding all of the nuclear sights he went to the office of the leader of Pakistan.

He did not knock he just flew right through his window.

His guards came in and fired their weapons at him.

He just laughed at them and took their weapons and bent them double and handed them back to them.

Then he said "Mister President will you give up your nukes or do I destroy them all?"

The President said, "How can you do all of this?"

He said, "I will return."

He flew out of the office and went to where one of the missals was.

He tore open the bunker and took the missal into outer space and threw it into the sun.

Then he went back and told the Pakistan President to be at that meeting.
He said he would be there if the rest are.

On Thursday Tommy had to take another sick day but he thought it would be great if his plan worked out.

He walked into the meeting room of the Pentagon and walked up to the mike.

“Is there anyone here who does not understand English.”

They all did.

“Fine then lets get started. Its pure and simple, I am going to rid this planet of all weapons of mass distruction. You can all do it yourself or I will do it for you. You cannot cheat because I can find them anywhere you put them. Now are we all in agreement??”

They all looked at him and then looked at each other and started arguing with each other. He said” Hold it here, this is your world you must learn to get along. If you keep these weapons some day some nut will push that button and that will be the end of it and I will be the only one left.”

The U S A Russia and India all agreed to give them up but the rest said no way.

China said “if you try to take our weapons of mass distruction we will fire all of them at once.”

The Guardian said,” I can fly at super speed and I will turn them around and send them back to you, Now you all have ninety days to get rid of all your nukes. If I find any nukes after ninety days I will explode them where I find them. So get them off of your ships and off of your planes and off of your land. If you need help then let me know and I will send them into the sun.

I will help you in any way that I can.

I did not come here to rule the world but this is the only way you fools understand. When it is done I will go on with my life and you all can do the same. But anyone who starts a war will find me on the other side. Now good by and good luck”

He walked out and flew back home.

After he had transformed back into Tommy Dean he looked at the clock.

It was five o clock.

He picked up the phone and called Linda.

“Hello.” She said

“Hello Linda.”

“Tommy are you alright?”

“Yes I’m fine.” He thought, She sounds like she is worried about me, that’s great.

“Why do you ask?”

“They told me you took some sick days and I thought you may be ill.”

“No I’m fine I just had some things to take care of out of town.”

“Tommy,

I missed having you walk me home this week.”

“I missed you to Linda.”

“Will you be at work next week?”

“Yes but maybe we can do something this weekend.”

“I would like that.”

“Ok you think about what you would like to do and let me know,”

“OK Tommy.”

“By Linda.”

“By Tommy.”

The next day was Friday and Tommy and Linda was walking home from work.

“Linda did you think about what you would like to do this weekend?”

“Yes, if you don’t mind I thought we could drive over to Maryland and I can introduce you to my parents.”

“That would be great Linda, when do you want to leave??”

“Oh, In the morning sometimes, it takes about two hours to get there.”

“That will be great, I will look forward to meeting your parents. Do you think they will like me??”

I’m sure they will, you look a lot like my dad.”

They arrived at her house and Tommy walked her up to her door.

He turned her to him and gave her a short kiss on the lips and said, I’ll see you tomorrow morning.”

She smiled and said, “It’s a date.”

He turned and walked down the walk toward his house.”

When he got home he sat down in his chair.

He said I love Linda and I need to talk to Aldron if I can.

He closed his eyes and said, “Aldron I need to talk to you, can you hear me?”

A voice came to him in his ear.

“I hear you Tommy what can I do for you?”

Aldron I am in love with a girl and I don’t know how this super hero stuff is going to work out.”

“I hate to keep lying to her and I feel like I need to tell her who I am.”

“Tommy you must understand that if anyone found out about your secret they could use the girl to get to you and make you do their bidding.”

“To reveal your secret would endanger her as well as you.”

“I’m afraid that you will have to make a choice between the Guardian and the girl so be sure of your decision.”

Then he was alone again.

He thought, “well I guess I will have to make that decision when the time comes.”

The next morning he arrived at Linda’s house about nine o’clock. She came out and got in the car and they took off to Maryland.

Her parents lived on a small farm and it was nice to get away from the city.

They were very nice people and they seemed to like Tommy a lot.

They had a great time and returned home on Sunday afternoon.

When they got back to Linda’s house Tommy told Linda,

“You sure have some nice parents, I really like them and your mother is a great cook.”

Linda said, “They seemed to like you a lot also.”

“Well the next time we will have to go and visit my parents.”

“Oh, where do they live?”

“ Kansas City, that trip will take a little more planning.”

“ Yes it would.”

“Well I have to go now Linda, I’ll see you tomorrow.”

“Yes, goodnight Tommy”

They kissed goodnight and Tommy got in his car and drove home.

He looked at his watch, it was nine thirty P M.

“ I think I’ll circle the city a couple of times to see what is going on.”

He rubbed the ring and made the transformation to The Guardian.

He walked out into the yard and took flight.

He circled the city once and saw nothing out of the usual.

He went into super speed and flew up to Mars.

He looked the planet over and decided that it once had a great population.

Then he saw the rover had turned over and got stuck between some rocks.

He turned it back upright and it started working again.

He found an ice glacier and used his heat vision to melt the Ice.

He used his x ray vision to look deep into the planet and saw molten lava.

He bore holes in the ground to let the molten lava come to the surface.

The planet began to warm up and melt the ice.

He looked at his work and said, “That should make things start to grow. I will return in a few months to see what is going on here.”

He then left and came back to earth and went home.

He transformed back into Tommy Dean went in and took a shower then went to bed.

The next day started a work week.

He was glad because he would get to see Linda again.

He found himself thinking about her all the time.

It was hard to concentrate on his job.

He thought about how nice it would be to have her with him all the time.

He thought about asking her to marry him but he decided to wait and see what happened about The Guardian.

This Super Hero stuff was taking over too much of his life.

He knew he would have to make up his mind sooner or later.

Maybe he would ask her to marry him first, then if she said yes he would give up the ring. But if she said no he would keep the ring.

Either way he would wait until all this stuff about the weapons of mass destruction was over with.

Then it was time to quit work and he was walking Linda home once again.

Today she invited him in, sat him down and said “ I’ll fix us some dinner if you will stay.”

“He said,” I would be glad to.”

She turned on the T B and went into the kitchen.

They had a great dinner, she was a real good cook.
After dinner they went out on the patio and drank coffee and talked.
He wanted it to be like this for ever and he hated to say goodnight.
But he stood up and said, "I must be going now it was a great dinner."
She thanked him, he took her hand and pulled her close to him, put his arms around her and kissed her the way he had been dreaming about.
She did not resist.
The kiss must have lasted for at least two minutes.
He then just stood and held her in his arms for a while, kissed her once more and said, "I think I had better go now."
She smiled and said, "Goodnight Tommy."
He said, "Goodnight Linda." Then he left and went home.

The rest of the week was uneventful and he only became The Guardian to fly around and see what the countries that had W.M.As were doing to get rid of them.
He also flew to the rest of the planets around the sun to see if any were inhabitable but none were except earth and Mars. Mars had warmed up to about sixty degrees so he took lots of seeds there and planted them in hopes they would grow.

Then came the day when all W.M.As were supposed to be gone.
Had flew over America he flew over Russia he flew over China He flew over India and Pakistan and all around the world looking for W M As.
He called a meeting together of the same leaders as before. Then he said to them, "I have inspected your countries and I still find W M As in three countries.
Number one China, Number two Russia And also the united states of America.
I will start destroying those sights first thing in the morning starting with the U S A so get your people out of them tonight."
The President said, "Guardian you can't do that, you will leave us defenseless."
The Guardian said, "I will rotate from one country to the other until they are all gone.
So I would advise you all to make peace and get along for this is a small world.
When I am finished with the M D A s I will get rid of all the nuclear waist from your power plants that you have stockpiled."
The President said "What will you do with it?"
"You can pack it in very large containers and I'll take it to one of the outer planets where nothing can live."
"I told you that I am not here to rule but to serve you and help you in any way that I can."
"Now get your people out of these places so I can remove the weapons and destroy the bunkers that house them."
The next day was Saturday Tommy hac took a weeks vacation and told Linda that he had something to talk to her about when he got back.
Morning came and The Guardian started on his task.
First in America then in Russia then in China.
He got no resistance from any of them.
He worked around the clock cay after day.

After six days he was finished. There was not a weapon of Mass Destruction anywhere on the Earth. Also all of the nuclear waste was gone. Now maybe the world could rest easy for a change.

On the seventh day he rested from his work.

When Tommy got home he called Linda and ask her if he could come over. She told him yes.

Before he came home he had stopped at the jewelry store.

He left and went to Linda's house.

She had just fixed a pot of coffee and she brought him a cup.

He asked her to sit next to him and she sat down.

Tommy then moved down off of the couch to his knees looked her in the eyes and said.

"Linda will you make me the happiest man in the world and say you will be my wife?"

She was looking him back in the eyes and smiling and said," Tommy, I thought you would never ask, I would be happy to be your wife, I love you Tommy."

"I love you to Linda,"

Then he placed the ring on her finger and they kissed and kissed and kissed.

Later When Tommy got home he summand Aldron.

"You called me master?"

Yes Aldron I have something to tell you."

"Yes, What?"

"I am getting married soon, I have rid the world of all Weapons of mass destruction. I think my job as a super Hero is finished so what do we do now?"

Aldron said," That's Easy, all you have to do is find someone who can take the ring off your finger,"

"And who mite that be?"

"A man that is unmarried, unselfish, pure at heart and loves humanity."

Tommy said," That could take a while."

When Tommy went back to work his boss came up and patted him on the back.

," Congratulations Tommy, have you set a date yet?"

"No Sir we will be doing that real soon and we will let everyone know."

"Well you are getting a fine young woman there."

"Yes, Thank you Sir."

Then he left him to his work.

Later they decided to have the wedding in three weeks, then go to Kansas City to introduce Linda to his Parents for a honeymoon.

Tommy ask everyone he met to try get the ring off of his finger, but no one could do it.

Then one day he had to go down town to take care of some bigness for the company.

He had parked his car in the parking garage and had just got down to the street when a man of about thirty five stopped him.

He said, Sir I live out on the east side, I am a director for a boys club. I came down town to get some permits and I lost my wallet with all my money in it. I don't have the money to get my car out of the parking garage and I was hoping you would help me out.

."

Tommy said "How much is your parking?"

"Under five dollars."

Tommy handed him a five dollar bill.

The man said, "Thank you kind sir you are a life saver"

Then the man saw the ring and said, "That is a very interesting ring you have on."

Tommy held out his hand and said, "Try to take it off my finger."

"What?"

"Try to take the ring off of my finger."

The man reach out took hold of his hand and with the other hand pulled the ring off of his finger.

Tommy said, "Now put it on."

The man put the ring on.

Tommy said, "Now try to take it off."

The man tried to take the ring off but it would not come off.

"What's going on?" the man said.

Tommy said, "When you are in a secluded place rub the ring and you will see."

Tommy turned and walked away from the man.

Three weeks later a five year old Chevy convertible left New York with Just married on the back headed for Kansas City

Just before they got out of New York City Linda pointed to the sky and said, "Look Tommy there goes The Guardian, Wouldn't you like to be like him?"

Tommy said, I don't think so honey, I sure don't think so."

The End
