

An American Vet-Final Copy
09/11/2010

I was a soldier, I joined in ninety one.
Left home To serve my country, like dad and grandpa done.
today I say good by, to my one and only Son.
I guess I always knew this day was destined to come.
Chorus - I don't claim to be a hero, Don't hold my head above the rest.
just love my God and Country, I'm an American Vet.

I was a Sailor, served my country proud and true.
In the same way, so many other's choose to do.
I would give my life, to keep my country strong and free.
the way that god intended it to be.

Chorus - I don't claim to be a hero, Don't hold my head above the rest.
just love my God and Country, I'm an American Vet

I joined the u.s. Air force, when I was twenty one.
A fearless fighter pilot, is what I've had become.
I soared above our nation, and I controlled the sky.
to keep our proud America safe, I would surely die.

Chorus I don't claim to be a hero, Don't hold my head above the rest.
just love my God and Country, I'm an American Vet

I was a Marine, tiz what I'll always be.
To fight or die with courage, to keep my country free.
Duty, Honor, Country, a slogan we protect.
To carry out our duties, with honor and respect.

Chorus I don't claim to be a hero, Don't hold my head above the rest.
just love my God and Country, I'm an American Vet

I was a member of the Guard, i kept my country free.
To protect the homeland from sea to shining sea.
To be trained and ready, when ever I was called.
May God be with us when were called and bless us one and all.

Chorus I don't claim to be a hero, Don't hold my head above the rest.
just love my God and Country, I'm an American Vet
I love my God and Country, I'm a U S American Vet
