

Angels Don't Always Have Wings

Written By-Alvin Ray Kessinger

04/10/2010

Copyright Registered B M I

I said, "Lord please send me an Angel, as lovely as Heaven above.
For I needed someone to love me, and I needed somebody to love.
Please let her have hair like the sunshine, and eyes that sparkle like dew.
A smile that calms the heart of a man, and a love that's faithful and true."

Angels don't always have wings; no Angels don't always have wings.
They live here below to help us I know, Angels don't always have wings.

Then the Lord in all of his wisdom knew exactly what he would do.
He searched the world for just the right girl, and then he sent me you.
I said "Lord she's only a woman, not unlike the others I've seen".
He said just trust me and then you will see, that not all Angels have wings.
Angels don't always have wings; no Angels don't always have wings.
They live here below to help us I know, Angels don't always have wings.

Her heart is as pure as my love for you, She's all that you wanted and more.
So give love a chance and you'll find romance, and you'll both be happy I'm sure.
So I took her in and we soon became friends, and love blossomed out like a rose.
She's my lady luck and she picks me up, when ever my spirits are low.
Angels don't always have wings; no Angels don't always have wings.
They live here below to help us I know, Angels don't always have wings.