Hay Bartender, Pour me another round.
I just met the prettiest woman, in this whole dang town.
I told her that I loved her; she said she loved me to . .
Makes me so dog gone happy, that I don't know what to do.

She said I was everything, she was looking for.
I told her that she must have fallen out of Heaven's door.

Hay bartender pour me another round.
I just met the prettiest woman in this whole dang town.
When I see her tomorrow, I'm gonna hold her tight.
Because she is my woman, I'm gonna treat her right.
There's nothing that can compare to the Joule I found.
And every time I see her, Lord I think I'm Heaven bound.

Hay Bartender            Pour me another round.
Hay bartender,        pour me another round.
