O Lord of my fathers O Lord of my sole, King of the universe of witch you control.
How can you love, some one such as I, for you called my name and I passed you by.
I followed the way, of the wicked in sin, the way of the world was my bitter end.
I had no money , not even a home, the ground was my bed my pillow a stone.

Then when I sank, near life's bitter end I had no refuge I had not a friend.
You came back to me, and held out your hand, you gave me salvation , now I'm a new man.

O Lord of my fathers O Lord of my sole, King of the universe of witch you control.
You gave me salvation, and love in my hart, no power on earth can tare us apart.

Then I gave you my life, and I gave you my hart, you molded and shaped it like some great work of art.
Now life is eternal, and we are as one, I hold to your promise that can't be undone.
When this life is over, and my new life begins, I'll rest in your love which never will end.
